LOCAL DEATH ROLL

MRS. OLIVE AYMAR

MRS. ALMA RONEY

Digby was startled on Thursday morning to hear of the sudden deaths of Olive, widow of C. S. Aymar, and Alma, widow of Capt. Burkett Roney, which took place in the same room practically at the same moment at about 3 o'clock. Both these ladies made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Roney. Byron being the only son of Mrs. Roney, and his wife the only daughter of Mrs. Aymar. The latter, who had reached the somewhat advanced age of 79 years, had been ill for several weeks but her condition was not such as to cause great alarm. Shortly after two o'clock Thursday evening she was taken with a serious turn and the younger Mrs. Roney aroused her mother in law and summoned the doctor. On the latter's arrival he saw that Mrs. Aymar was in extremis and the elder Mrs. Roney volunteered to call Stanley Aymar, who lived only a short distance away. She did so and returned to the house immediately not waiting for Mr. Aymar, who followed a few minutes afterwards. Mrs. Roney took off her coat and hat and went to the sick room, where she took a seat on the edge of the bed. She was only there a few seconds when she fell to the floor, but did not lose consciousness as she asked the doctor who assisted her to arise, what had happened to her. He assured her it was but a faint and helped her to a lounge, returning at once to Mrs. Aymar's bedside. Mrs. Aymar was just breathing her last and a peculiar sound from the lounge caused the doctor to return to Mrs. Roney and he found she too had also passed away.

Mrs. Aymar was a daughter of the late Samuel T. Bacon and was born in Hill Grove. She leaves to mourn their loss two sons, Stanley S. of Digby and William M., of Everett, Wash., and one daughter, Mrs. Byron Roney, of Digby.

Mrs. Roney was about 65 years old and up to the time she came to Digby to reside, lived at Centrelea, Annapolis County, Byron with whom she lived was her only child. Besides him she leaves to mourn two sisters and a half sister, Mrs. Victor Caldwell, Centrelea; Mrs. A. Potter, Clementsville, and Mrs. Adelaide Morton, now in Massachusetts.

The funeral of Mrs. Aymar took place Sunday with interment in the Hill Grove Cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. D. E. Hatt, pastor of the Digby Baptist Church, the pall bearers being A. A. Shortliffe, M. C. Denton, A. J. Westhaver and C. H. Carty.

The remains of Mrs. Roney were conveyed to Centrelea on Monday, accompanied by her son Mr. B. A. Roney and son-in-law Mr. S. S. Aymar where interment took place; the services being conducted by Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church. The pall bearers were Ashley Hutchison, Rupert Rice, Edward Messinger and Clarke Brooks. The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

a blacksmith by trade and had lived there practically all his life. His wife died about five years ago. He leaves to mourn two sons, Ernest and Hedley, in Digby, and seven daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Farnsworth in Sydney; Mrs. Grace Nickerson, Mrs. Elizabeth Webber and Mrs. Florence Meader, Boston; Mrs. Jennie Rayworth of New Brunswick; Mrs. Beatrice Clark and Mrs. Edith Dillon in Halifax.

Two brothers, Chas. A. in Digby, and Henry W. in the West also survive. The funeral took place on Sunday, and was conducted by Rev. A. Hockin.

MARY J. HARDWICK PARKER

The following from a New York paper of Dec 15 was received by friends of the deceased in Granville: Mary J. Hardwick Parker, widow of John W. Parker, senior member of the shipping firm of J. W. Parker & Co., Manhattan, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Moran, 125 Cambridge Street. She was born in Nova Scotia eighty years ago and for half a century had lived in the Bedford section. She was a member of Central Congregational Church and the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman conducted the funeral services today at her late home. She is survived in addition to her daughter, by a sister, Mrs. Frederick Day; four grandchildren, and two great grand children. Interment at Greenwood Cemetery was private.

DAVID SPROULE

One of Digby's leading business men in the person of David Sproule, died on Tuesday, after a lengthy illness, aged 66 years. He was a son of the late Samuel Sproule, of Litchfield, Annapolis county, in which place he was born. As a young man in company with his brother Orbin, (now in the west) he came to Digby and started in the fish business under the name of D. & O. Sproule. They met with success from the start and continued until about 1900 when Orbin Sproule retired and David Sproule continued the business as sole owner, under the name of D. Sproule & Co. He had been a member of the board of schools commissioners for a number of years. A widow and large family are left to mourn. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. D. E. Hatt, assisted by Rev. A. Hockin.

MRS. ARCHIBALD PORTER

Mrs. Archibald Porter passed away at her home in Bear River, on Tuesday, December 21st, aged 55 years. She is survived by her husband, one son, Lawrence, in Ontario, and one daughter, Frances, at home. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Wm A. Howse, of Bridgetown; Mrs. Avalah Howse and Mrs. Phoebe Isles, of Beverly, Mass. Funeral took place Friday afternoon with interment in Mt Hope Cemetery, the services being conducted at the house by Rev. W. J. Wright, pastor of Bear River Methodist church and at the grave by Rev. A. W. L. Smith, rector of St. John's (Episcopal) church.

LEO FRANCIS RUGGLES

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Ruggles, Halifax, have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in the death of their infant son, Leo Francis, aged fifteen months, the pet and darling of the household, who sickened and died with a suddenness that made his passing a grievous shock to his parents.

BEAR RIVER

Mrs. Emma Ford returned from Boston on the 21st.

Mr. Clyde Hamilton returned home Tuesday, after spending a year in New Brunswick.

The sum of $51 was realized from the "Oakdene School" concert which was held the 17th.

The concert and Christmas tree held in the vestry of the Baptist Church the 23rd was largely attended.

Mr. Herbert Hamilton returned home from St. John on Monday, to spend his Christmas holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick, who have been spending several weeks in Boston, returned home Monday.

The students who arrived home for the holidays were: Steward Reed, Lionel Roop, Voharres Ditmars, Edna Peck and June Schmidt.

ONE RESULT OF THE REFERENDUM

Like other towns in the province Bridgetown is being flooded with circulars from Montreal liquor houses. There does not seem to be a great deal of liquor coming in, due doubtless, to the high price, which is a pretty effective prohibition law.

FRED H. DAKIN

A feeling of regret was felt in Digby Friday when it became known that Fred Dakin had passed away. Frederick Hubert Dakin was 69 years old and was the 7th son of the late Jacob Dakin. He was
