CHICAGO MARKET.

MARKETS STILL EASY.
CASH AND FUTURES DECLINE
CORN VERY SLOW.
PROVISIONS LOWER.

Chicago, Sept. 19.

The wheat situation is undoubtedly strong. A great deal of May wheat has been bought and the long interest is to spread too allow of much of an advance yet. The Northwest is marketing their crop freely and but for the fear of a twist in September month, in which case a sympathetic advance would occur in futures, the prices would sag. Cables were slightly off this morning but a fairly good foreign buying at seaboard is noted. There is little risk in buying at present prices and averaging out.

BRADSTREET'S EXPORTS.

Wheat shipment for the week reflect an enlarged foreign demand for American wheat and flour, aggregating 3,675,291 bushels as against 3,100,208 bushels last week, 6,289,918 bu. in the corresponding week one year ago, 3,566,326 bushels in 1896, 2,538,085 bushels in 1898 and 3,537,283 bu. in 1894. Since July 1 this year exports of wheat aggregate 36,169,091 bushels against 44,621,700 bushels last year. Corn exports for the week are considerably smaller than last week's heavy total, aggregating 2,331,005 bushels, against 3,868,869 last week, 3,901,092 bushels in this week of 1897, 2,364,787 bushels in 1896, 1,605,998 bu. in 1895, and 145,301 bushels in 1894. Since July 1 this year exports of corn aggregate 30,738,875 bushels, against 34,377,849 bushels during the corresponding period last year.
