

THE CRISIS OF MISSIONS. By REV. ARTHUR T. PIERSON, D.D. New York: Robert Carter & Bros. Toronto: John Young, Upper Canada Tract Society. New edition. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 35 cents.

This fascinating and stimulating book was fully noticed in this department on the appearance of the first edition. And we take it up again simply to say that a cheap edition has recently been issued. The "Crisis of Missions" is too well known even now to require any critical review. Its clear, compact sentences contain volumes of information in few words. Its graphic descriptions, splendid style, intense glow, fire and dash, make it the book to awaken interest in the great cause of missions and stir to passionate enthusiasm a sluggish church. Sessions and Missionary Committees wishing to educate congregations to intelligent liberality would be more than repaid were they to keep on hand quantities of this book for free distribution. Two or three copies of the cloth edition should be in every Sabbath school library, even at the expense of the "Gates Ajar" series and a few of the pious, second-rate novels.

Here and Away.

"WHY burns thy lamp so late, my friend?"

EXAMINATIONS begin on March 27th; College closes on Thursday, April 5th,

GEO. BALLANTYNE, '86, Camilla, and J. J. Dobbin, '87, Mono Mills left their cards last week.

J. E. BROWNE, '87, did not remain long in El Paso, Texas. He was in California a few weeks ago.

THE offices of Rev. Dr. Reid, Agent of the Church, have been moved from Church Street to 15 Toronto Street.

TWO old Knox men have recently been settled in Toronto Presbytery, Rev. J. W. Bell in Newmarket, and Rev. A. U. Campbell in Queensville.

THE academic part of the closing exercises will be held in Convocation Hall in the afternoon; the evening meeting in Cooke's Church.

THE programme for the evening meeting in connection with College closing, in Cooke's church, will include an address by one of the professors, another by H. R. Fraser, representative of the graduating class, and another by Rev. Dr. Kellogg.

IN reply to enquiries from friends throughout the country, the editor wishes to say that the publication of the Colonial Correspondence will be continued in the April number of THE MONTHLY.