The various essays were, with but few exceptions, of a high order of excellence, both from a scientific and literary standpoint. We have been much gratified to note the interest to which this competition has given rise, and desire to extend our thanks to each and every contestant whether successful or otherwise.

A pamphlet containing the successful essays, with portraits of the authors, is now in press; it is being printed on good paper and in legible type, and will be mailed, together with a handsome fac-simile of Prize Painting in 14 colors, suitable for framing, to every physician sending his request for same to
