Marjorie's Canadian Winter

This is the first Canadian edition of this attractive story. Like all Miss Machar's writings, it is marked by a spirit of intense patriotism and a high moral purpose. $1.00.

Agnes Maule Machar

Among the Immortals

Songs and Sonnets from the Hebrews

The devotional element is prominent throughout, and there are a number of stirring patriotic poems. The book well deserves a place on the book-shelf of the home and library. $1.00.

R. Walter Wright, B.D.

Lyrics from the West

It is an encouraging fact that the West, while making gigantic strides in material advancement, is at the same time contributing its share to the literature of Canada. To those interested in Canadian verse we now commend this little volume of Mr. Conybeare's, which contains excellent work. 75 cents.

C. F. P. Conybeare, K.C.

A Hymn of Empire and Other Poems

Frederick George Scott

Among our Canadian poets a place in the highest rank is, by common consent, assigned to Frederick George Scott. His work has attracted the attention and won the commendation of the leading literary journals abroad as well as at home. There are many fine poems in this little volume that will make it a welcome addition to the company of the best in our literature. 75 cents.

Songs and Sonnets

By H. C.

Published under the auspices of the Tennyson Club of Toronto

This dainty volume of verse makes its appearance in good time for the holiday season. The author is a Toronto lady whose work will be recognized as familiar by the readers of the leading magazines of the day. We recommend the book to all lovers of true poetry as well worthy of a place among the best in our country's literature. The tasteful cover design will show a spray of maple leaves in the natural colors, making it an exquisite gift-book for Christmas. $1.25.

A Vision of Immanuel

John Johnstone

The poem that forms the subject-matter of this book, from the pen of a Western clergyman, is an expansion and interpretation of the testimony of John the Baptist to Jesus in John i. 29. The sentiment, the language, the metre, the imagery are all in keeping with the subject of the poem. 50 cents net.

The Cornflower and Other Poems

Jean Blewett

Mrs. Blewett, by her poems, has succeeded wonderfully, not only in gaining the attention, but the interest and sympathy as well, of her fellow-countrymen. Her previously published book, "Heart Songs," has been and is very popular. The new volume will present Mrs. Blewett's later work, including those poems with which she has charmed audiences in her platform recitals, and which have made her, in a wider sense than any other of our writers, the "poet of the people." $1.00.

Life on the Uplands

J. D. Freeman

This is one of the most suggestive books of the expository-devotional type which has appeared in recent years. While it deals with the most familiar portion of Scripture, being based on the Twenty-third Psalm, it presents that masterpiece in a strikingly new and illuminating light. The literary charm of this book will be highly appreciated, while its message will carry comfort and strength to many hearts. The author occupies the pulpit of the Bloor Street Baptist Church, Toronto, and is one of the foremost ministers of that denomination. 75 cents net.

Quiet Talks About Jesus

S. D. Gordon

Another of the "Quiet Talks" Series. 75 cents net.

Wesley and His Century

W. H. Fitchett

A Story of Spiritual Forces

Everything which Dr. Fitchett has written is worth reading, but this, his latest work, is particularly brilliant and strong. Dr. Fitchett knows the secret of destroying the microbes of dullness, and charms his reader on every page, and the excellence of the style is matched by the masterly grasp of the materials, making this indeed a notable book. Cloth, 536 pages, with portraits in photogravure. $1.50 net, by mail $1.65.

The Study of Nature and the Vision of God George J. Blewett, Ph.D.

With other Essays on Philosophy

This important contribution to the literature of Philosophy is from the pen of the recently appointed Professor of Ethics and Apologetics in Victoria University, Toronto. $1.75 net.
