AMBITIOUS TEACHERS

Vacation is at hand and many ambitious teachers will desire to supplement their too small salaries by occupying their period of rest from the duties of their schools by engaging in some active out-door employment. There is no more pleasant or profitable means of accomplishing this object than by spending the vacation securing business for The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company.

Its chief officers and most successful agents have nearly all been teachers and know how to appreciate the desire of ambitious teachers. We shall be glad to hear from and assist live men.

"The one neglected element of economy is cooking."—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.
 "I have used the 'Peerless' often and am greatly pleased with it."—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher.

The above cut shows, quite plainly, what the "Peerless" does. The best hotels and sanitariums cook by this process, and what is economy in a large establishment is economy in a small one. This cooker will prove a blessing to every family and pay for itself two fold every year. The complete dinner, for from six to thirty people, cooked at the one time, over one hole, or small oil stove, occupied by any old kettle. All the food put in at once—no danger of drying or burning. The cook is called for fifteen minutes continuously before the water boils out, by the steam signal that can be heard in any part of the house. No intermixtures of flavors or odors in the house. Each article retains its full flavor (which is the odor) under steam pressure. Double saving in meats—one pound in five pounds saved from shrinkage. Cheap, tough meat cooked tender, more palatable and nutritious than more expensive cuts cooked in the ordinary ways.

Space does not permit us to fully explain, but if you are interested send for the illustrated circular and terms for handling. Very much depends upon the individual, but if you can sell anything it is evident you can make more, and it easier, with a good, meritorious article than with any catch penny novelty. For this reason we confidently place this cooker before you. People of intelligence, with experience in boarding, that leads you to justly appreciate any endeavor to improve the culinary department, admitted to be one of the, if not the greatest factor in promoting man's happiness, and lightening woman's mental and physical condition.
