WORKS BY HENRY M. STANLEY.

* New and Cheaper Editions. Now Ready. *

How I Found Livingstone. Including Four Months' Residence with Dr. Livingstone. With map and illustrations. Crown 8vo., cloth $1.25.

* * The unabridged Edition, superior in paper and binding and with the Original Maps, price 7s. 6d., can still be obtained.

"The freshness with which Mr. Stanley writes, his real powers of narrative and description, his quick observation and very industrious collection of materials, all going hand-in-hand as they do with the reader's keen interest in the subject, with admiration of the courage, energy, and self-reliance, and ready reserve of the traveller, and with the strange semi-chivalrous, semi-commercial nature of his mission, render the work he has so soon published excellent reading."—Times.

"It is incomparably more lively than most books of African travel. The reader may follow him with unflagging interest from his start to his return, and will be disposed to part with him on excellent terms."—Saturday Review.

Through the Dark Continent: from the Indian to the Atlantic Ocean. With Maps and Illustrations. Crown, 8vo., cloth, $1.25.

* * The Unabridged Edition, superior in paper and binding and with the Original Maps, price 12s. 6d., can still be obtained.

"Every page contains the record of some strange adventure, or the note of some valuable observation. . . . We lay down the book with a feeling of admiration for the courage of the explorer and of respect for his powers of observation and great industry."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"Most fascinating narrative."—Athenaeum.

My Kalulu: Prince, King and Slave. A Book for Boys. By H. M. Stanley. Crown 8vo. cloth, 90 cents.

(Forming one of the Volumes in "Low's Series of Standard Books for Boys.")

"The book is extraordinarily fascinating, and will be read by everyone, man or boy, with breathless interest from cover to cover. It is quite remarkable that a man of action, like Stanley, should be able to write so well. 'My Kalulu' is a romance based upon knowledge acquired by Stanley during his search for Dr. Livingstone in 1871-72."—Penny Illustrated Paper.

The Story of Emin's Rescue, as told in Stanley's Letters. Second edition now ready. Published by Mr. Stanley's permission. Edited by J. SCOTT KELTIE, Librarian to the Royal Geographical Society. With a Map of the Route from the Congo to the Coast. Crown 8vo. boards, 35c.

* * The publication of this volume will in no way trench upon Mr. Stanley's larger work which will probably be published in May.

"At Mr. Stanley's own request, and in compliance with a widely expressed desire, Messrs. Sampson Low & Co. have reprinted in a small volume the letters from the great traveller which have already appeared in the press, with some little additional matter contributed by Sir W. Mackinnon, and with an excellent map, which alone would render the publication welcome to those—and their name, of course, is legion—who have tried to follow the stirring events of this march across the African continent, and to ascertain the greater or less geographical importance of the discoveries described in some of the longer dispatches. . . . Although the chief facts recorded in this little volume may no doubt be fresh in the minds of the majority of readers, yet the exceptional importance of the letters, and the convenience of possessing them in a collected form, fully justified their reproduction."—Morning Post.
