LIFE IN A LUMBER CAMP.

THE DANGERS THAT BESET THESE STURDY TOILERS.
Recent Events Recall an Accident That Caused Years of Pain and Suffering—How the Victim Regained Health and Strength.

Mr. James Fitzgerald, a prosperous and respected merchant of Victoria Road, a pretty little village in Victoria County, has for years suffered from the effects of a peculiar accident which happened him while in a lumber camp. To a reporter of the Lindsay Post, Mr. Fitzgerald said that when a boy in his teens had a strong desire to spend a season in a lumber camp, and prevailed upon his parents to let him join a party of young men who were leaving for the woods fifty miles distant. It proved, for him, an unfortunate trip. One day while he was binding on a load of logs, the binding pole broke and he received a heavy blow on the elbow of the right arm. As there was no surgeon within fifty miles of the camp he was attended to by the best means his fellow-workmen could provide. After a few days, thinking he was all right, he went to work again. The exertion proved too much, for in a short time the pain returned, and continued to get worse every day, until at last Mr. Fitzgerald was forced to return home, where he got the best of care and medical attendance. This, however, did not relieve him, as the pain had become chronic and partially affected his whole arm, and thus suffered for years, unable to get any relief, his arm becoming withered and paralyzed, and he was forced to give up his farm and try various light commercial pursuits, and abandoned all hope of ever having the arm restored to usefulness. In the fall of 1892 he was induced to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. A dozen boxes, and before these were used he began to experience the beneficial effects. The pain from which he had suffered for so many years began to lessen. He procured another supply, and went on from that out the improvement was constant and rapid, and he not only recovered the use of his arm, but is enjoying as good a bodily health as he did before the accident, seventeen years ago. Mr. Fitzgerald feels that the cure is thorough and permanent, and as a natural consequence is very warm in his praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which have been the means of benefitting many others in his neighbourhood, who have seen what he had done in Mr. Fitzgerald's case. For cases of partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, and all nerve troubles Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the only certain cure. They act directly upon the blood and nerves, thus striking at the root of the trouble, and restoring the system to its wonted vigor. Sold by all dealers or sent post paid at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Refuse all imitations which some unscrupulous dealers may offer because of the larger profit from their sale.

Dear Sir,—I have been ruptured for five years, and in that time have experimented with many styles of trusses, all of which seemed to do me more harm than good. I was so disgusted with the slow progress I was making that I started to invent a truss of my own. Before completion, however, I heard of the Wilkin-son Truss, and was induced to give it a trial. I have now been wearing the one I procured from you about three months, and during the last five years I have not experienced so much comfort. I cannot but recommend it to persons requiring a truss.

You may refer to me for reference.
Yours truly,
(Signed) MATT EVANS.

APPLETON'S POPULAR
SCIENCE MONTHLY
Edited by WM. JAY YOUMANS.
The Popular Science Monthly is without a competitor.
It is not a technical magazine.
It stands alone as an educator, and is the best periodical for people who think.
All its articles are by writers of long practical acquaintance with their subjects, and are written in such a manner
as to be readily understood.
It deals particularly with those general and practical subjects which are of the greatest interest and importance to the people at large.
Besides this, it keeps its readers fully informed of all that is being done in the broad field of science.
A reference to the contents of any of the late numbers will more than confirm the foregoing statement.
