A. Marcotte of Montreal, was sold last week at auction, realizing 67½ cents on the dollar.Messrs. Downie & Adam, hardware dealers in Chatham, dissolved last month, Mr.
John Downie continuing the business alone at the old stand.In our issue of 17th ult., we stated that a compromise was being sought by Mr. C. C. Weldon, druggist at Shediac; we should have said of Moncton, where Mr. Weldon has been doing business.The voting upon the by-law granting a bonus of $5,000 to the Rubber Company which propose locating at Granby Que., took place on the 21st ult., the vote standing 88 for, and only five against.The Montreal Ship Laborers' Society are preparing for the summer campaign, and have fixed the rate of wages at 25 cents an hour for day work, 30 cents for night work, with rates for Sunday work.ANOTHER failure in the dry goods trade is that of P. E. Labelle of Montreal, being the third similar event in his business career, the two former failures dating 1869 and 1876. His present liabilities are some $19,000 which he has compromised at 40 cents payable in 3, 6 and 9 months. He shows nominal assets to the same amount including $4,000 of bad and doubtful debts, and the stock is not an extra good one.
