Professor Goodnow says in his Preface:—"The hope is entertained that this essay may be useful from both the legal and political points of view; from the legal point of view because nowhere before has the attempt been made to collect and review either the cases decided by the Courts relative to this matter, or the various constitutional provisions assuring to municipalities the right to manage their own affairs; from the political point of view, because any theory which the Courts may have formulated upon the subject has presumptions in its favour resulting from the fact that their conclusions have been through the following of inductive rather than deductive methods."
