

CALIFORNIA

AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE: November 28, 1985

SPECIAL DAY: August 6, 1986

COMMISSIONER: Mr. John Hay

DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS: Mr. Larry Hoffart, Mr. Allen P. Goldstein

PAVILION DESCRIPTION: 1000 square metres (10 764 sq. ft.) - Yellow Zone.

EXHIBITS: Theme was California: Creating the Future; exhibits featured a number of California "firsts" in communication and transportation technology; Teddy Ruxpin, the world's first talking toy bear was displayed as the exhibit's official mascot; display of Apollo XIV command module, carrier of the first man to the moon; live broadcasts of satellite weather forecasts; 25-monitor videowall displayed the future of space flight through science fiction writer Ray Bradbury's eyes; flying saucer tour of California through a magic-of-Hollywood film.