

Technicians was subsequently chosen as being one of primary importance for the developing countries within the Commonwealth as well as for the more developed countries.

Mr. Martin said he hoped that as a result of the Conference each participating country of the Commonwealth, irrespective of its stage of economic development, will be able to secure an improvement in its arrangements for educating and training in this field.