

to a Reception at the London County Hall.

I enjoyed very much the wonderful hospitality extended to me, and I have written to the Principal of the University to express my thanks and those of the University I represented.

I should like also to express my gratitude to you for allotting to me the honour of representing McGill on a very notable and pleasant occasion.

With best wishes for the vacation

Yours very sincerely

J. O. Day