

- Washington, George, suppresses mutiny of Jersey troops, iii. 325.
 articles of confederation, iii. 326.
 heads of departments formed, iii. 329.
 eulogium on Hamilton, iii. 329.
 misunderstanding with Hamilton, iii. 329.
 to Lafayette on Hamilton, iii. 332. reconciliation with Hamilton, iii. 333.
 to Greene on the battle of Guilford Court House, iii. 357.
 on the destruction of Arnold's corps, iii. 362.
 instructions to Lafayette, iii. 363.
 to Steuben on Arnold, iii. 363.
 sets out for Newport, iii. 364.
 to Lafayette on Cornwallis, iii. 364.
 at Newport, iii. 364.
 arranges plan of campaign with Rochambeau, iii. 364.
 to Lafayette on the sailing of the French fleet, iii. 365.
 returns to New Windsor, iii. 365.
 to Greene on the chance of re-enforcements, iii. 365.
 to Colonel Laurens on the failure of the Portsmouth expedition, iii. 367.
 anxiety for Greene, iii. 368.
 orders Lafayette to join Greene, iii. 368.
 to Lund Washington on his conduct towards the enemy, iii. 370.
 force on the Hudson, iii. 372.
 death of Colonel Greene, iii. 373. arrival of Count de Barras, iii. 374.
 interview with Rochambeau, iii. 374.
 number of force, iii. 375.
 plan of operations, iii. 375.
 to Gov. Clinton on his designs, iii. 376.
 march to King's Bridge, iii. 376.
 failure of the enterprise, iii. 377.
 at Dobb's Ferry, iii. 378.
 to Lee on his plans, iii. 378.
 reconnoitres the British posts, iii. 379.
 at King's Bridge, iii. 379.
 awkward predicament, iii. 380.
 to Lafayette on the effect of the reconnaissance, iii. 381.
 disappointment as to re-enforcements, iii. 395.
 to the Eastern States, iii. 395. to Lafayette on the arrival of the Count de Grasse, iii. 396.
 determines to command the expedition, iii. 397.
 crosses to Haverstraw, iii. 397.
 visits West Point with Rochambeau, iii. 398. move toward Virginia, iii. 398.
 to Noah Webster on the Virginia expedition (note), iii. 399.
 welcome at Philadelphia, iii. 401.
 concern about De Grasse, iii. 403.
 to Lafayette on Cornwallis, iii. 403.
 arrival of the Count de Grasse, iii. 404.
 reaches the Head of Elk, iii. 404.
 to De Grasse on Cornwallis, iii. 404. at Baltimore, iii. 405.
 revisits Mount Vernon, iii. 405.
 pushes on to Williamsburg, iii. 405.
 orders troops to stop, iv. 14.
 hurries on the French troops, iv. 15.
- Washington, George, on board the French fleet, iv. 16.
 plan of operations, iv. 16.
 arrival of Admiral Digby, iv. 16.
 threatened departure of the French fleet, iv. 16.
 army drawn up at Beaver Dam Creek, iv. 18.
 strength of forces, iv. 19.
 anecdote, iv. 19.
 despatches from Greene, iv. 21.
 to Greene on the battle of Eutaw Springs, iv. 20.
 fires the first gun against Yorktown, iv. 27.
 witnesses the storming of the redoubt, iv. 31.
 anecdote, iv. 31.
 and Knox, anecdote, iv. 31.
 surrender of Yorktown, iv. 33.
 and General O'Hara, iv. 35.
 on the victory, iv. 35.
 re-enforces General Greene, iv. 37.
 dissolution of combined armies, iv. 37.
 at Eltham, iv. 38.
 death of John Parke Custis, iv. 38.
 proceeds to Mount Vernon, iv. 38.
 to Greene on the improvement of the victory, iv. 38.
 to Lafayette on the next campaign, iv. 39.
 reception by Congress, iv. 39.
 policy of the ensuing campaign, iv. 40.
 bold project of Colonel Osgden, iv. 40.
 to Greene on retaliation, iv. 41.
 murder of Captain Huddy, iv. 41. demand on Sir Henry Clinton, iv. 42.
 the case of Captain Agill, iv. 42.
 case of Colonel Webb (note), iv. 43.
 at Newburg, iv. 44.
 continues his precautions, iv. 44.
 arrival of Sir Guy Carleton, iv. 44.
 propositions of peace, iv. 44.
 discontent in the army, iv. 45.
 letter from Colonel Nicola, iv. 45.
 indignant reply to Nicola, iv. 46. negotiations for peace, iv. 47.
 to Rochambeau, advising a junction, iv. 47.
 at Verplanck's Point, iv. 47.
 on the reduction of the army, iv. 47.
 discontent of the army, iv. 48.
 anonymous paper, iv. 49.
 addresses committee of the army, iv. 52.
 to Congress on behalf of the army, iv. 55.
 news of peace, iv. 57.
 a plea for the soldier, iv. 58.
 general order on peace, iv. 58.
 grants furloughs, iv. 59.
 interview with Sir Guy Carleton, iv. 59.
 president of the Society of the Cincinnati, iv. 61.
 on the dissolution of the army, iv. 61.
 mutiny of Pennsylvania troops, iv. 64.
 to Congress on the mutiny, iv. 64.
 tour through New York, iv. 65.
 to Chastellux on his tour, iv. 65.
 parting address to the army, iv. 66.
 at Harlem, iv. 68.
 enters New York, iv. 69.
 farewell to his officers, iv. 70.