

meeting, failing to do so, they will be fined 12½ cents, unless a sufficient reason be given for their absence.

22. As a mark of respect, the Club may create two Honorary members every year, at the annual meeting. They shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of ordinary members, without being required to pay any of the dues.

23. Any member for infringing the Constitution and By-Laws, shall render himself liable to be fined from one to five dollars, and for behaving in a manner unbecoming a gentleman, to be expelled from the Club: in both cases, by a majority of the members present at any meeting of the Club.

24. The Constitution and By-Laws shall not be altered, unless by the votes of a majority of all the members, at a meeting called for that purpose, on an application signed by twenty one members, and specifying the proposed alteration, which must be published in two daily papers.

