Dunlops junior team don't like the climate up around Bracondale Park. It rains in torrents up there. It also rains goals. When the rubber men led off with a goal things looked bright for them and their hopes ran high. Just then the rain started in earnest. That would not have been so bad, but unfortunately just about the same time Wychwood juniors started in earnest, also. At half-time the score was 1 to 1. During the second half it was just a matter of how many goals Wychwood would score. Thep stopped when the scoresheet read five goals to one. Then the game stopped. So did the rain for a few minutes, and we all took the chance and hiked it for home. It was a great day for Wychwood and a bad day for the men from the east.

LOOKING OVER SHOW HORSES

Close Decisions in Several Classes-Easy Win by Harness Horse.

Well-filled classes faced the judges on opening night at the horse show. In fact, so much attention was required in decidmidnight that the awards were completed. Thus, it is in order to suggest that possibly the judges might work some-what faster when they must handle large fields and a long program.

There were thirteen entries in the heavy harness class, the first to take to the tanbark. Governor, the nice chestnut with good conformation and action, own-ed by Crow and Murray, was much the best. A. Yeager of Simcoe scored second and third with Princess and Queen Elsenham.

The saddle horses over 15.2 had eighteen starters, and there was little to choose between the first three. H. R. Tudhope's Marquis won, tho Jos. Kilgour's Sunny Girl with a better shoulder movement would have been better than second. Third went to Willie Wilson's Fairchild from Ooakville.

Jos. Kilgour's Dictator, and Mayerdale, from Sunnybrook Farm, were awarded first and third in the thorobred hunters' class, Hughie Wilson's Fairchild splitting the pair.

At the Regina horse show last week the leading event was the jumping in which Hon. Clifford Sifton's Confidence was introduced, and he again beat Capt. J. W. Sifton's Wasp, but neither did any record work. Ravello, also one of the Sifton string, took the saddle horse event for 15.2 and over, carrying 175 pounds. He has been one of the sensations of the show. Strathcona horse entries went down before Sifton's in the service saddle class. and in the woods.
