

Methods of training salesmen, 102-113.

Methods of wholesale selling, 26.

Middlemen, declining importance of, 40.

Milling-in-transit privilege, 447-449.

Mixing privilege, the, in freight shipping, 367-371.

Modification of typical purchasing system, 208.

Money,

Relation of credit to, 216.

Sign of economic progress, 214.

Montreal harbor, 550-554.

Morgan, E. F., on commercial agencies, 282.

Murphy, D. B., on business losses, 232.

N

National Association of Credit Men, 308-310.

Form used by, 295.

Purposes of, 295.

National bankruptcy laws, 301-302.

Nature of credit, 212-224.

Nature of product, 33.

O

Objections, how to overcome, 145.

Ocean traffic,

Distinguished from railway traffic, 559.

Factors affecting, 555-556.

Freight rates, 558-560.

Liability, 560-563.

Tonnage, 547-548.

Office committee, 89.

Ontario Wholesale Grocers' Guild, 376.

Open-mindedness, 158.

Opportunities in salesmanship, 156.

Opposing considerations, 170-171.

"Order" bill, 482-483.

Orders,

Placing, 200.

Tracing, 201.

Order record, 198-199.

Ottawa Canals, 336.

P

Pacific Car Demurrage Bureau, 492-493.

Panama Canal, 569-574.

Panics and depressions, relation of credit to, 217-221.

Particular sales, supervision over, 114.

Passenger fare a multiple of rate and distance, 457-458.

Passenger traffic, 454 et seq.

Pedler, The, defined, 8.

Per diem charge, 497-499.

Perpetual inventory, 206.

Persistence, 159.

Personal credit, 226.

Relations of, to other credits, 232.

System not well organized, 226.

Personal interviews, 115.

Personal interviews with salesmen, 99.

Personality of salesman, 148.

Placing orders, 200.

Possibility of depreciation, 172.

"Postage stamp" rates, 387-389.

Potential railway traffic, 346-347.

Practical results of committee system, 90.

Present law, advantages of, 303.

Price scales, variable, 186.

Prices, judging future, 181.

Principles of organization, 46.

Principles of salesmanship, 136-147.

Training in, 103.

Problem of distribution, importance of, 1-3.

Problems, buyer's, 170.

Problems of manufacturer, 31-45.

Problems peculiar to business, meeting of, 111-113.

Profit-sharing to induce cooperation, 81.

Promises, ability of salesman's house to keep his, 183.