

CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF

signed and sealed the great Covenant of Freedom, to sacrifice every private consideration, and establish a centralization of power to conserve the great blessings and privileges which we enjoy under British connection, upon such a basis as will enable every limb and fibre to receive vitality and nourishment from the parent stem.

The Loyal Orange Association has not been organized as a life insurance society, but in order to save its members the extra cost of joining other fraternal orders for the sole purpose of securing such insurance a Life Insurance Department has been established fully complying with Government conditions, by which members of the Order who can pass the necessary medical examination can protect their families, and although it is not a condition precedent to joining the Order, still brethren are urgently requested to take advantage of this means of providing for their families or those dependent on them when they themselves are called hence.