TORONTO. SUGGESTS TEST CASE

di no a Bashop Farthing Denounces Annulment of Herbert Marriage. MONTREAL, April 16 .- The annulment of the Herbert marriage drew forth a vigorous protest from Bishop Farthing this evening in Christ Church Cathedral. He declared that the Roman Catholic Church cannot be allowed to touch the legality of a marriage of a Roman Catholic when performed by a minister of another church, tho the church may inflict penance or other ecclesiastical discipline on the offenders. His lordship called into question the interpretation of the law on the matter, and suggested that it would be in the interests of morality and peace if a test case were taken to the privy council. The Herbert judgment, the bishop said, struck at the root of familv life and there must be no more such scandal. Civil and religious equality of all must be sought for by the citizens

London's 7000 Drivers May Decide to Go Out.

April 15.-London threatened with a taxicab strike. Two thousand drivers held a mass meeting tonight and adopted a resolution protesting against the action of the owners' federation in increasing the price of petrol.

The situation is the outgrowth of the refusal of the government to re-mit the petrol tax of three half-pence a gallon. The taxicab owners thereupon proposed that the fares sho raised from 8 to 10 pence for the first mile. The drivers declined to accede to this, on the ground that they would lose money owing to reduced patron-The owners then issued an ultimatum that unless the fares were increased the petrol tax would be charged to the drivers. CONGREGATION APPLAUDED Rev. W. J. Graham's Attack on Temere" Well Received.

Before a large congregation in Firstavenue Baptist Church last night, Rev. W. J. Graham, the pastor, gave in detail his objections to the recent papal decree respecting mixed marriages. His utterances were frequently applauded. It was a "piece of impertinence," he declared, that the Roman Catholic Church should insist that marriages should be performed in the presence of two witnesses as well as a priest This was for the purpose of proselytizing where a Catholic man, married a Protestant woman.

It was an offence to Protestants that censes obtained from the same governments were not held to be when a Protestant minister performed the ceremony. The Roman Catholic Church taught that marriage was a secrament, whereas it was a civil contract. The decree had a disrupting effect in that it broke up homes. The state ought to be supreme.

Crowded Churches. Crowded Churches.

Easter Day, the great annual festival, which celebrates the resurrection of Christ from the grave, is the greatest festival in the ecclesiastical calendar, and all the churches of the city marked the occasion by having special services. At St. Michael's Cathedral high mass was celebrated by Archbishop McEvay, and the music at this service was beautifully rendered by the service was beautifully rendered by the

At St. Alban's Cathedral the services were unusually large, many being turned away at the morning services, when the bishop of the diocese preached. In the evening the Rev. Canon Macnab preached from the text, "Come see the place where the Lord lay." The canon dwelt on the absolute authenticity of the locality of the holy sepuchre, which was built by the Emperor Constantine. Forty-three gold and silver lamps hang from the roof and all Christian nationalities are allowed to hold services there. The canon said that as those places which were dear to us were surrounded by ornaments of our past, so the Christian church adorns her worship with music and ornate ritual so long as the reality of the spirit of worship remain. "There is absolute fact of the resurrection," concluded Canon Macnab. "for it has been attested by a mean with the spirit of worship remain." At St. Alban's Cathedral the services absolute fact of the resurrection," con-cluded Canon Macnab, "for it has been attested by so many witnesses. If the resurrection were not a fact, all our Christianity would fall to pieces. The resurrection means to us newness of life and the absolute pledge of our own resurrection to eternal life." Chairs in Aisles.

At St. Thomas' Church high eucharst was celebrated at 11 a.m., and the congregation was so large that it was necessary to place chairs in the siste. Rev. Father Sharpe gave a very thoughtful address, asking his congregation to remember the significance of Easter Day, joy and good will, and he hoped that everyone in the church whether they were strangers to each other or not, would wish each other a happy and blessed Eastertide. The question of the "Ne Temere" de-cree entered into very few of the sermons yesterday, as on the great fes-tival of Easter, the differences of creed are forgotten and the mein theme that was in the ascendant thruout the ma-

SEEDS OF DISUNION Sown in Very Heart of Catholicism. Says Mgr. Stagni.

MONTREAL, April 16.-That the Catholic Church in this country is in such a state as to call for the admiration of many other countries in the world, but that, even in its flourishing condition, it has been assailed by the enemy of all good, inasmuch as the seeds of disunion, division and discord have been sown in its very heart. Such is the message given forth by his excellency the papal delegate, the Most. Rev. Monseigneur Stagni, on the occasion of his first visit to Montreal. 'All this,' he continued in an address to-day, "ought to be absorbed and washed away in the charity of Christ, and should disappear in the love, which the Catholic and Apostolic Church has for all her children.

Archbishop, Bruchesi had touched ipon the same point in his address of welcome to the delegate. "If all concerned," said he, "were to put aside all prejudices—if all would remember the maternal solicitude of the church for all her children—if all would bear in mind the iberties granted those living under the British flag-these differences would soon vanish."

In answer to these criticisms the prince, thru one of the royal press agents, says: "People complain that I was not continually running from one temple or museum to another, and have tried to make out that my only interest was in hunting, polo and golf. PAPAL DEGREE WARNING TO PROTESTANT GIRLS

Rev. John Coburn Sees Irreconcilable Antagonism Between Religions.

Before a large congregation at the Parliament Methodist Church last evening, Rev. John Coburn continued his address on "Rome and the Inviola-bility of Marriage." As a prolog to his sermon Mr. Coburn said he had read all the elegant and cultivated attacks made upon him by Rev. Father Minehan and he hoped the day would be far distant when he would sink to the depths of such vulgarity as Father Minehan had done

Taking as his text the gospel of St. Matthew, chap, 19, verse 6, "What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder," the preacher said that Rome had always posed as the enemy of divorce and the valiant knight armed to the teeth in defence of the sacredness of marriage, but he declared that instead of Rome being the defender of marriage, it degraded it, by teaching that it was inferior to the state of celibacy, and by teaching that celibacy, was a purer state than marriage made it a degradation to Immoral Priests. "A priest of Rome can be an utterly immoral man," declared the preacher. "He may be so immoral as to destroy the chastity and purity of anyone of his lady communicants and then he can be absolved from that sin and continu his ministry as a priest, but if he wants to make a woman his wife according to the Church of Rome, that church will excommunicate him: There you see the light in which Rome regards marriage, and I defy any Roman theologian to deny it."

Mr. Coburn gave an illustration of a case in Wexford, Ireland, where Chief Justice O'Brien tried a case of bigamy. In 1892 a man had been marbigamy. In 1892 a man had been mar-ried to his cousin by a Roman Catholic priest, and after a few years they grew tired of each other and took their case to the bishop, who annulled the marriage because no dispensation had been given. Both married again, and were found guilty of bigamy, but Judge G'Brien dismissed the case, saying that the they had violated the law they had they had been so the law they had obeyed the law of the Church of

"There is not a divorce court in Da-kota," declared the preacher vehement-ly, "that would do such things as the Church of Rome will do when it vio-lates thus the sanctity of marriage."

Protestant Girs Warned.

Mr. Coburn declared that there was one great lesson this law would teach young people and that was that it was unsafe for any young Protestant girl to think of entering into any matrimonial relationship with a Roman Catholic young man, because between true Protestantism and true Roman Catholicism there was irreconcilable

Mr. Coburn urged that every loyal ditizen of Canada should demand a Dominion marriage law and if it be impossible to obtain it we should go to the British parliament in London and request them to amend the British North America Act. The preacher said that there was only one place good enough for those responsible for the "Ne Temere" decree, and that was be-hind prison bars. "We do not wish to hind prison bars. "We do not wish to interfere with Father Minehan." concluded the preacher; "let him sprinkle his holy water and hear his confession, but when under the power of papal decrees, man and wife, united by the holy laws of God. are driven asunder and the brand of shame 4s put upon poor little children, it is time we rose up and put an end to such infamous poor little children, it is time we rose up and put an end to such infamous
