There were many little interesting matters before the parks committee yesterday afternoon, among them being a protest about the way wagons are cutting up the boulevards in front of the Alexandra Apartments. University-avenue. The parks commissioner will investigate this. The Leuty-avenue situation was touched, Leuty-avenue situation was touched, and at the suggestion of Ald. Sheppard it was decided that if the property could be purchased at $160,000, it should be. Ald. Sheppard pointed out that the city invariably got the worst of it in expropriation proceedings. The Dufferin grove matter came up again. Assessment Commissioner For-man pointed out that prices are on the way up and the city would likely have to pay more now than was the original figure. He advised expropriation, but he will get more details beyond the he will get more details beyond the fact that the property is 1 1-2 miles from the exhibition grounds, two miles from Queen's park and 1 1-2 miles from High park.
