MONTREAL, Aug. 27—Baltimore blank of Montreal here to-day, the score being to to 0. The Royals could not connect with Hefty Hardy's offerings, while the Orioles made nine solid bingles off lughes. These came when they were the most serviceable. Hughes was wild, too, and his lack of control cost runs. The weather was again autumnal and there was some fumbling on that account. Needham carried off the fielding honors with two fine running catches in left field, where he played, as Shean honors with two fine running catches in left field, where he played, as Shean was back in the game and Joyce's leg was still to the bad. Corcoran, Dunn and Beach also had busy days in the field. The fun started in the first inning, when O'Hara led off with a double. Kelly failed in his attempt to sacrifice, and O'Hara was caught at third. Demmitt singled and the pair scored on Byers' hard drive to left. In the second Rapp filed to Corcoran, Burrell singled and Hardy fouled to Waters. Hughes

Hughes braced, and the Orioles did not have much of a look-in till the ninth, when O'Hara went out to Needham. Kelly got a single thru short and Demmitt and Byers warked. Dunn drove the ball past third and Kelly and Demmitt scored. A double play, Corcoran to Shean, on Beach's line firive, retired the side. In only one inning did the Royals get more than one, hit, the ninth, but Needham than one, hit, the ninth, but Needham could not get the ball past Hardy, and fies.

Royals' Franchise May Be Transferred to Hamilton -- Baseball and General Notes.

The Eastern League season will probaply close in Montreal next Sunday, with the appearance of the Toronto Club. Rochester is scheduled to play there Sept. 8, 9 and 10, but it is expected that these games will be transferred to Rochester. With racing in Montreal as opposition, it would be a losing proposition financially for the club to jump back from Toronto for one series, particularly owing to the Royals' low position in the race. Toronto plays in Montreal on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with double-headers Saturday and Sunday. There is now talk of transferring the Montreal franchise to Hamilton.
