WAR PRACTICALLY CERTAIN Is the Remark Said to Have Been Made by President Kruger to a Prominent Boer.

ROYAL DRAGOONS UNDER ORDERS.

War Office Sent an Urgent Request to Col. MacDonald, the Omdur-man Hero, to Re-act.

Johnsburg, Sept. 1.—The town is preparing for the eventualities of war. The inmates of the Children's Home are going to Natal. The Town Council is providing a three-months supply of food for the men and animals connected with the scavenger department. All the outgoing trains are packed with soldiers. The Boers have already left Johannesburg.

Was Practically Certain.
London, Sept. 2.—The Pretoria correspondent of The Morning Post says: "President Kruger told a prominent Boer yesterday (Wednesday) that war was practically certain." Every Boer is now armed with a Mauser and has a hundred rounds of ammunition, strictly for future use, with forty rounds for practice. "I am convinced that the reports of the Boers not being prepared are only a pretence, and that they will strike a blow when it is least expected."

Royal Dragoons Under Orders.
London, Sept. 1.—It is reported at Aldershot that the first Royal Dragoons, under Lieut.-Col. Burn-Murdoch, is under orders to be in readiness in the event of hostilities in the Transvaal. The regiment, re-figured at Waterloo, Blakeney and Sebastia-nopol, has not left England since the Crimean War.

TEXT OF DESPATCHES.
British Government Issues the Latest Correspondence Between the Two Parties.

London, Sept. 1.—This evening the Secretary of State for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, issued the text of the Transvaal despatches of Aug. 19 and 20, and the reply of the Imperial Government on Aug. 20.
The publication is accompanied by a note explaining the advisability of making the corrected versions known, owing to the fact that an incorrect version has been published in Pretoria.
The Transvaal despatch of Aug. 19 contains the proposal regarding the franchise which goes upon the assumption that Great Britain will agree to the present intervention does not constitute a precedent, and will allow the suzerainty question to drop.

The despatch of Aug. 21 makes the proposed concession conditional upon Great Britain's undertaking not to agree to arbitration.
The Imperial Government declines to insist upon a further assertion of the existence of suzerainty and to agree to arbitration.

British Reply.
The report of the Imperial Government dated Aug. 22, declares that Great Britain considers that the proposals put forward as an alternative to those of July 31, assume the adoption in principle of a franchise which will not be hampered by conditions impairing its usefulness, and which will secure immediate representation.

With respect to the conditions of the Imperial reply, the Secretary of State says that the Government cannot deliver them themselves, but that they will be delivered by power to protect its subjects abroad from injustice.

The note concludes by reminding the Transvaal that other matters exist which the Government cannot ignore, and which are of a more serious nature than the franchise, and which are not the proper subject of arbitration.

The Pretoria version of the Imperial reply is that Mr. Chamberlain's statement to consider the Transvaal's proposal an alternative to a joint commission of enquiry.

Omdurman Hero Summoned.
London, Sept. 1.—Col. Hector Archibald Macdonald, the Omdurman hero, has been summoned to the War Office. He expects to go to Cape Colony immediately.

Situation Complicated.
London, Sept. 1.—The situation in South Africa has become further complicated. The strong feeling of the Dutch element in the Cape Colony evidently influences the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr.
Chamberlain, to do everything possible to avert a rupture, and explains the further delay for a conference at Cape Town.
The arrangement for the constitution of an arbitration court, to deal with the question of suzerainty, which, rather than franchise, now takes the leading place in the controversy.

What Delay Means.
The Standard says: "Diplomatic dalliance only postpones the evil day and prepares for us a still severer conflict. Until we resort to decisive measures, every day adds to the Boer's confidence and defensive strength of the Boers, and proportionately weakens the position of the British. The indefinite delay, which lies at the root of their advantage, thus we are confronted with an exceedingly grave problem."

A Game of Patience.
The Daily News says: "Mr. Chamberlain's despatches contain a game of patience almost in the aspect of comedy." The special dispatch regarding the franchise expresses the belief that the Volksraad will oppose President Kruger going to Cape Town.

Gen. Joubert is credited with saying:
"There will be no war, but Great Britain will not get all she wants." The British are becoming irritated at the prospect of further delay.

Burgers Greatly Excited.
Cape Town, Sept. 1.—Reports received from various outlying districts of the Transvaal describe the Boers as being in a state of excitement. The Burgers, it is said, are watching the developments keenly.

RUMORS OF POISON WERE RIFE.
Board of the Industrial Exhibition Association Orders a Searching Investigation.

Eight valuable milk cows, some of them prize-winners, died at the Exhibition grounds yesterday in a most mysterious manner.

Mr. Robert Davies lost three of his prize-winning Ayrshires and one Jersey cow.

A rumor spread that the animals had been poisoned, but the rumor was generally discredited by cattle breeders on the grounds.

There were also dark hints that the cows had been tampered with before going before the judges.

The sudden deaths of these valuable milk cows created a sensation among the breeders present and a round robin was signed and sent to the directors of the Industrial Exhibition Association, asking that an investigation be made as to what caused the death of the prize animals.

The board met later and passed a resolution, authorizing the vice-president, J. Smith, V.S., to procure the assistance, if necessary, of other veterinary surgeons and to make a searching investigation.

Dr. Smith, when spoken to by The World last night, was extremely indignant. He did not know, he said, what killed the cows. Of course the heat had been extreme.

An investigation will take place to-day.

The Thamesford People, Bitten by a Dog That Had Been Bitten by a Mad Dog,

ARRIVED AT PASTEUR INSTITUTE.
No Symptoms of Hydrophobia Have Yet Developed, Though the Bites Were Pretty Serious.

New York, Sept. 1.—A family of five persons arrived in this city tonight from their home in Thamesford, Ontario, and went to the Pasteur Institute to take the treatment there, all having been bitten by a dog on Aug. 15.

The family consists of George Holmes, 31 years old, and his wife, Mary, and their three children, Eva, 7; Annie, 11, and Maud, three years old. The father had been bitten on the hand and the others were bitten in the hand or leg. No symptoms have yet been developed.

The Holmes family is known to have been bitten on July 30 by a dog which subsequently went mad.
