Dense Fog in Irish Channel Responsible for the Disaster—Two Lives Lost.

PASSENGERS AND CREW SAVED

The Harmonides Rescued Them, One Hundred and Twelve in All, After the Crash.

London, March 6.—The American line steamer Waesland, Captain Atfield, from Liverpool, March 5, for Philadelphia, and the British steamship Harmonides, Captain Pentin, from Para, Feb. 13, for Liverpool, met in collision to-night off Holyhead, Wales.

The Waesland sank. Her passengers and crew were all saved except two. The Harmonides rescued the passengers and crew of the Waesland and is bringing them to Liverpool.

NEWS AT LIVERPOOL

Liverpool, March 7.—The disaster to the Waesland only became known late last night. The agents of the steamer received a telegram from Captain Atfield, which was handed in at Alnwick, a little place near Anglesey.

The collision occurred in a thick fog at 11.30 Wednesday night, when the Waesland was about 40 miles south-west of Holyhead.

The collision occurred in a thick fog at 11.30 Wednesday night, when the Waesland was about 40 miles south-west of Holyhead. The Harmonides struck the Waesland amidships, and there was a terrible shock.

Unfortunately, two lives were lost. The dead are a stevedore passenger named Danglefield and a child named Elsie Immett, the daughter of a cabin passenger.

EQUAL TREATMENT TO ALL

Bill Read Second Time to Compel Telephone Companies to Give Public Reasonable Service.

GIVE CONTROL OF RATES TO P.M.G.

Minister of Justice Favors This Idea—Measure Sent to the Railway Committee.

Ottawa, March 6.—To-day in the House, W. F. Maclean moved the second reading of his bill respecting telephone companies.

The Premier asked that the bill be allowed to stand in view of the measure which the government has brought in on the same subject.

Mr. Maclean urged that both measures should be considered together before the Railway Committee of the House.

To this Sir Wilfrid nodded assent, and Mr. Maclean went on to say: "I would point out, for the information of the hon. leader of the House and the House itself, that my bill may contain provisions not contained in the government measure, and these should be no objection to the bill being read the second time and going to the committee, and the two bills being considered together."
