

Woodbine Get-Away Basebal on Sunday Lacrosse Win Tecumsehs Win Torontos Lose

Note and Comment

Every one of the favorites finished in the money on closing day at Woodbine Park—four of them first; Flying Squirrel second to Busy, that had an easy ride; Kara also in the place, and Belweather third. The day was ideal, like the weather during the entire meeting, and for such the directors are no doubt thankful, especially during these troublous times. Of course, the gate money was the biggest record, not to mention the revenue derived from the fifty-odd bookmakers including the pawnbrokers, at fifteen per cent.

The meeting, from a social and racing standpoint, took a new high-water mark. The O. J. C. entertained the best in the country, except the crown-attorney, and raced the fastest horses in America, including:

It is conservatively estimated that the gross paid attendance was $20,000, at $1.50 per head, which is the pickers' throw, and would bring $18,000 into the coffers of the club. There were 57 races, and an average of at least fifty bookmakers. Thus, $1.50 x 50 equals $75,000, or a total of $200,000, nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

The O. J. C. paid out in stakes and purses $61,000.

We make the approximation with a view to induce the O. J. C. to add another $5000 to the Toronto Cup money, for the runner on the continent this time next year, may not come again.

Those interested in racing locally are content with the present method of legal bookmaking, while the casual observer at Woodbine Park of the above-mentioned scheme is generally disgusted. The regular players are satisfied that they get longer odds than heretofore.

The truth of the matter is that there is only one form of public speculation that should be tolerated. It is the one that is based on the future, and not on the past. The hungry, horse-headed gang that come spring and fall with their crews for their semi-annual gorge.

A dozen machines at least could turn out sufficient tickets for all the business on King's Plate or Victoria Day at better prices than the ten-dollar-a-day ticket-writers, or runners, or alleged cashiers, to jostle on the public, less the cost for operation, or possibly a percentage to the government, that is, according to the figures guessed at, as above.

Racing as conducted in Toronto is too good a pastime to lose, and the present agitation for its abolition is a pity. The above suggestion is believed to be the best, and the front page of the Globe, that evidently desires a change for the better, could not play in time in working its influence in that direction at Ottawa than at Woodbine, where its former bedfellow, the alleged boss gambler of Toronto.
