WILLARD AND F. MORAN POSTPONE THEIR FIGHT

Heavyweight Champion Has Grip and Pain in the Chest—May Fight Later in March.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Dave Lewishon, who represented Tex Rickard and Sam McCracken in the recent Willard-Moran fight negotiations, announced today that he had been told over the long-distance telephone by Rickard to make the date for the fight between the champion and the Pittsburgher March 22. Lewishon called up Willard, but the latter was non-committal, merely telling Lewishon that he would see him later. According to the New York despatch, Jess Willard has called off the bout, being too ill to continue training, and rather than take any chances canceled the match set for March 8.
 On the long-distance telephone from Chicago, Tom Jones called up Willard and informed him he was going to New York to train. The latter told his manager that everything was off.
 "It will be impossible for me to get in proper condition," said Willard, "so there's nothing left to do but to call off the bout."
 "Will you be able to get in condition for a bout later in the month?" inquired Jones.
 "That's hard to say. If my health permits there will be nothing that can stop me from keeping the engagement," Willard replied.
 When like Dorgan, manager of Moran, was reached on the long-distance telephone and informed of the news he could hardly say.
 "I had an idea Willard was sick," said Dorgan, "and really was afraid something would happen to put a damper on the match. Both Moran and I are very sorry to hear about Willard's illness, and hope he will recover soon. Under the conditions we are agreeable to a postponement if that is possible."
 When the members of the club gathered to see the champion in Willard was absent. One of those close to Willard said today that Jess had been complaining of pain in his chest in addition to a sore throat.
 The champion is in no condition to train for a fight and will not be for several days.
 Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh heavyweight, who is training at the White Sulphur Springs Hotel, Saratoga, was confident that he will yet get an opportunity to win his championship, but was disappointed this morning when a report of the International News Service informed him that there was a strong possibility that the bout scheduled for March 8 in Madison Square Garden would be postponed.
 Moran, who gets up with the chickens, had just returned from the hotel where he was staying when the report reached his camp, where the mercury stood around zero. After frantically shaking around in the deep snow with the 130-lb. reporter on his back, Moran eagerly said today that Jess had a cold in the head, but not in the feet, and asked for more time.
 "Of course," said Frank, "if Willard is sick he cannot fight. It is a keen disappointment to have this bout postponed but in that event we will have to wait for Willard. He is the champion, but you can say, however, that I stand ready to meet him any time he is ready to fight."
 Asked what his plans were, Moran said that he and his manager, Ike Dorgan, were in New York and were just what the situation is. If the bout is postponed, Moran will return here and continue his training.

THE ISSUE Is Not "Wet" or "Dry"!

THE Citizens' Committee of One Hundred claim that the issue in this Prohibition contest is "wet" or "dry." This is incorrect. The issue is not "wet" or "dry," but "license" or "no license," for even if the Province be voted "dry," it will remain "wet," as it is now, with, however, these differences: Liquors of very inferior quality will be shipped in from the outside and illegally distributed and dispensed, with the most disastrous consequences to health and morality. Also, all Government revenue hitherto derived from legitimate sales and licenses will entirely disappear, and will have to be made up in some other manner. This latter point, by the way, seems always to be forgotten or ignored by Prohibition advocates; but it is of practical importance, after all.
 The general arguments against Prohibitory laws, arguments supported by undeniable facts and figures, have been again and again set forth; but it may not be out of the way to recapitulate them.

Facts That Cannot Be Denied!

- First: Such laws deny the natural and inherent right of personal liberty, making it dependent upon the will, whim, or caprice of the majority for the time being.
- Secondly: By reason of such denial they are subversive of the principles of free government, and especially of the fundamental principle, that the rights of the individual shall be preserved.
- Thirdly: They invariably produce greater evils than those which they are intended to eradicate.
- Fourthly: They can never be satisfactorily enforced, as experience has amply demonstrated.
- Lastly: They create hatred, discord, and dissension in a community, a condition to be avoided at all times, but especially during the crisis through which Canada is now passing, when the Empire is fighting for its very life.

The Personal Liberty League of Ontario believes in temperance in all things, and in its promotion; we favor the license system under proper regulation and control, but we are opposed to prohibition or any legislation which encroaches upon or curtails the purely personal liberties of our people.

"You are a fine upstanding man; what about signing up?" queried a recruiting sergeant, buttonholing Col. G. T. Denison, police magistrate, on Bay street yesterday.
 "Do you know who I am?" queried the colonel, in turn. On the recruiting officer admitting his ignorance, Col. Denison enlightened him. He informed the soldier that he had commanded the Canadian cavalry in the Fenian raid of 1866 and the northwest rebellion of 1869. For 41 years he had been in the militia list. Already there have been six casualties in the Denison family.
