LATE LOCALS

Madame F. Ramsey of the Sacred Heart order at Montreal, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ramsey of this city, passed through today, en route to Halifax, accompanied by Mother Hughes and Madame McManus. They will be stationed at the sister city for the present.

County Secretary George R. Vincent has laid information with Magistrate Mason against Hugh McCormick for selling liquor during prohibited hours. McCormick was fined $50 ten days ago for the same offence and was then cautioned that a repetition would mean a heavier penalty and the possible loss of his license. The case will be heard on Friday.

POLICE COURT

Several Drunks Were Summarily Dealt With This Morning.

In the absence of Judge Ritchie, who is attending the Quebec Tercentenary, Mr. Henderson presided in the police court this morning.

Felix Holland, a habitual offender, was fined $5 or two months in jail for drunkenness.

George Wilson and John Nagle were fined four dollars for drunkenness.

Frank Hopper, another habitual drunkard, denied being drunk, and as the policeman who arrested him, was not present, the matter was stood over.

John Henderson, a carpenter, arrested on a warrant issued by William Cook for alleged assault in a Union street saloon, pleaded not guilty. Cook did not appear in court this morning and therefore his case was not heard.

David McManus, who was arrested on Saturday night, failed to appear in court this morning to answer the charge of drunkenness, and his $5 deposit was forfeited.

Fred Lupee, charged, Bertha Kennedy, a colored resident of Union alley, with annoying him. The woman declared it was vice versa. Lupee alleged that yesterday when he visited the house occupied by the woman's mother, the latter threw a flatiron at his head, narrowly missing his target. Both mother and daughter have abused him, and he decided to seek redress in court. A settlement was amicably arranged.

Frank M. Burns, charged with the theft of $7.50 from P. F. Collier's local agency, was remanded until Friday, to give the prisoner an opportunity to arrive at a decision relative to which court he desires to appear before.

Indictments on several other charges of misappropriation are pending against Burns, Patrick McHugh, Fred Love and Lawrence Conway are reported for violating the I. C. R. trackmen's rules.

A LARGE FUNERAL

Body of Sergt Tilley P. Urquhart Borne to Grave Today With Military Honors.

The funeral of the late Sergeant Tilley P. Urquhart of the 62nd Fusiliers, who met such a tragic death on Sunday morning on the military special, was held this morning.

The local militia had complete control of the funeral.

At 11:15 the caisson was carried from his late residence at 17 Brindley street to the street by four members of the Canadian Order of Foresters. It was then enshrouded in the national colors and placed on the gun carriage provided by the R. C. A. The cortege then started with the members of the Canadian Order of Foresters in the van followed by the Artillery Band, 62nd Fusiliers, gun carriage containing the body with eight R. C. A. men as guard of honor, the R. C. A. and a large number of friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

The route of the funeral was Brindley street to City Road, Pond to Mill streets to Main. Lieut. Colonel George Holt White, D. O. C. personally superintended the arrangements and walked with the 62nd.

The 62nd was in command of Lieut. Col. M. B. Edwards, Capt. Gillespie and Lieut. Sancton.

Although both local regiments were largely depleted through the excursion to Quebec, all those who remained home attended the obsequies.

Rev. J. W. Kinsstead, of the Tabernacle Church, conducted the services at the house. Lieut. Magee was in charge of the R. C. A., owing to the absence of superior officers.

A pathetic incident occurred immediately prior to the departure from the house, when Mrs. Riecker, the mother, and Mrs. Urquhart, the wife, were practically carried to a cab by male escorts. Their grief was pitiable to witness and the shocking affair seemed destined to seriously impair the health of both ladies.

The two children were placed in a hack with their mother and grandmother. The body was taken up at 1 o'clock on the steamship Champlain to Belisle, where interment will occur tomorrow.

A guard of honor will accompany the body and fire a salute at the grave.

Joseph W. Corkery
The death occurred this morning of Joseph W. Corkery, a well known North End man, who has been ailing for some time.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 8:45 from his late residence, 132 Douglas avenue. Requiem Mass will be conducted at St. Peter's Church.
