Swim Arrested In Double Murder Case In Carleton County

Question of Marriage Arises; Man and Woman are Slain.

Victims are Harvey Trenholm and Mrs. Olive Swim—She is Said to Have Married Trenholm Short Time Ago—Prisoner Wounded in the Head, is Being Taken to Woodstock.

Woodstock, N. B., March 28.—A double murder at Benton Ridge has shocked this district it was reported to Sheriff Albion R. Foster late yesterday afternoon, when the bodies of Harvey Trenholm and Mrs. Olive Swim were found dead at Trenholm's home. The man's body was found on the door step and the woman lay in a room off the kitchen. Mrs. Swim was housekeeper for Trenholm.

Benton Ridge is a farming community back of Benton, on the Edmundston-McAdam division of the C. P. R. The bodies of Trenholm and Mrs. Swim were brought here this morning and are now at Henderson's undertaking rooms.

Barry Swim, the slain woman's husband, who is suspected of the double murder was caught this morning several miles from the scene of the tragedy. His pursuers were able to track him by blood stains on the snow. It was said he had shot himself in the head but the wound is not considered serious.

Swim, who came down from Hartland yesterday, stopped here and started to walk to Benton. He was picked up on the road by a young man who gave him a lift along for some distance. It is related that he talked about the woman and said he was going to try to get her to return and live with him. He said it was his second trip to see her. There was no indication in his talk that he intended to commit the crime of which he is suspected. It is said he and the woman were married in one of the parishes back of Hartland some months ago. In any case the woman was married two weeks ago to Trenholm, the murdered man at Debec.

From the appearance of the bodies when found it would seem that Trenholm was killed first, being shot through the head. He was on the door step and it is thought the woman was inside and heard the shot and went to the door and that she was shot in the breast and ran into the house leaving a trail of blood to the room where she was found. The murderer it is thought, followed and shot her again as there are two bullet wounds in her breast, one from the back. She was eighteen years old and quite prepubescent in appearance. Trenholm was older.
