MORE ADDED TO LIST OF MISSING

Washington, June 22—Other vessels which have disappeared off the Atlantic coast of the United States under mysterious circumstances were added yesterday to the list of those whose failure to appear is attributed to circumstances more or less related to the kidnapping of the crew of the American schooner Carroll A. Deering, off Diamond Shoals, N. C., in last January.

It is not asserted that all the missing vessels were the victims of pirates or Bolsheviks—others intending to dispose of ships and cargoes to the government of Soviet Russia, but the fact that all disappeared at about the same time, and that none left a trace is considered significant.

King and Queen At Ulster Parliament; Leave Belfast Again

His Majesty Hopes Visit Will Prove Step Towards End of Strife Among Ireland's People. The Scene as They Land and Make Way to Hall—Southern Senators Address Lloyd George.

Belfast, June 22—"I speak from a full heart," said King George in the speech formally opening the Ulster parliament here today, "when I pray that my coming to Ireland today may prove to be the first step toward an end of strife among her people, whatever their creed."

The ceremony of the opening was similar to that attending the inauguration of the British parliament at Westminster and was a brilliant spectacle. There was but little room in the city hall, where the function took place, for the large number of invited members of the parliament did not participate in the exercises.

As soon as the king and queen set foot on the dock, the royal salute boomed out and the crowds that lined the long street leading to the city hall strained at the barrier walls of soldiers and police to catch a glimpse of the approaching procession. The wait was short, for, with the exception of the formal reception by Viscount Fitzalan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and Lord Pirrie, who appeared in behalf of the city, there were no ceremonies on the dock.

Six Thousand Soldiers. A squadron of police headed the procession, and the marriages of the royal party were followed by those of officers and dignitaries. The escort of honor was chosen from the Tenth Hussars. On each side of the procession were the colors of nearly 6,000 regular troops, standing shoulder to shoulder and supporting the royal party. The bride and groom were escorted by Lord Pirrie, who appeared in behalf of the city, there were no ceremonies on the dock.
