THE WAR NEWS

Yesterday's news told of the failure of the German attempt to break through the Russian line in the direction of Warsaw. Today's news tells of a desperate effort on the part of the Germans, with heavy reinforcements and more guns, to break through the French and British lines on the road to Calais. One of last night's cables declares that the battle has already been in progress for forty-eight hours, and that thus far the Allies have succeeded in checking every assault. It is estimated that the Germans have half a million men engaged, and any correspondent observes that within the next few days probably one-fifth of these will lay down their lives in the desperate effort to obey the Kaiser's command and win through to the French coast. There is no note of apprehension in the French and British reports. Evidently there is a confident feeling that the efforts of the Germans are again to be completely defeated.

An interesting announcement is to the effect that Portugal has decided within the proper time to join the Allies, and that a partial mobilisation will at once be ordered. The Portuguese army is small, but would prove very effective at a critical time.

Neither in the eastern nor the western theatre of war is Germany making any progress. The reports from Paris describe the Germans as in full flight before the Russians in Poland, and all the reports agree that the advantage is with the Russian armies.

THE TWO CHAPLAINS.

The announcement that Rev. G. A. Kühring and Rev. Dr. J. H. MacDonald had been accepted as chaplains to go with the second contingent, will intensify local interest in the fortunes of the Canadian soldiers. In the years he has lived in St. John Mr. Kühring has won for himself a very warm place in the affections of the citizens. He has been deeply interested at all times in all that pertained to the city's welfare, and has contributed much to the advancement of causes related to the moral and social welfare of the whole city. He has always shown an intense interest in Canadian national development, and a sincere devotion to the Empire. He will be missed not only by his congregation, but by citizens of every creed who have been associated with him in good work during the period of his residence in St. John.

Dr. MacDonald is not so well known personally to the citizens, because he has lived but a short time in St. John, but he was well known as a successful pastor in the city of Fredericton, and later in Ottawa; and since he has assumed the editorial chair in the office of the Maritime Baptist his writings have been very widely read and greatly appreciated. He is one of the strong men of the Baptist denomination.

Dr. MacDonald has a son with the first contingent. One of Mr. Kühring's sons is among the students of the University of New Brunswick who have offered their services, and another son is eager to go. The call to sacrifice service which Mr. Kühring and Dr. MacDonald have preached for many years has been acknowledged and responded to by themselves in a manner that will intensify and make broader yet the esteem in which they are held. It is but fair to say, however, that there are a number of other ministers ready to go to the front, who will be keenly disappointed if the opportunity is denied them, and the number includes Rev. E. B. Hooper, of this city.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS

Do the members of the legislature who have supported the Flemming government believe that Mr. Flemming deserves a continuation of their support? If not, why do they not insist upon his retirement?

Do the colleagues of Mr. Flemming feel that after the report of the Royal Commission they are justified in following his leadership any longer? If not, why do they not demand his retirement?

Do the citizens of New Brunswick who have supported the Flemming government in the past believe that this government is the best they can produce? If not, why do they not demand the retirement of these gentlemen, so that the administration of public affairs may be placed in the hands of men more worthy of confidence?

To say that we must go on with the same discarded outfit at the capital because somebody hates Mr. Carvell or somebody else has no love for Dr. Pugsley is surely a very weak argument, for unless a change is made it will be a tacit confession of belief that there are not in the province of New Brunswick any men more worthy of confidence than those who have been so utterly condemned by the report of the Royal Commission. Any attempt to limit the responsibility to Mr. Flemming, and to assert that all the other members of the government are innocent, can no longer be made with any hope of success, since Mr. Flemming's colleagues have not insisted upon his retirement and therefore condone and accept responsibility for his acts.

No thinking person pays any attention whatever to such idle pleas as that Mr. Berry was appointed by a former government, or that the responsibility for the condition of affairs revealed at the Dugal inquiry rests upon any one but Mr. Flemming, his colleagues and his supporters in the legislature. It is not forgotten that the scope of the Dugal inquiry was limited, and that two of the most important witnesses remained in the United States and refused to come back, and that books which in the opinion of the Royal Commission itself were essential were also kept in the United States, and could not be examined by counsel for Mr. Dugal or by the Commission. Enough was revealed, however, to disgrace the province of New Brunswick, and for that disgrace full responsibility must be placed, as already pointed out, upon Mr. Flemming, his colleagues and supporters.

Is a government so incompetent and unworthy of public confidence to be permitted to remain in office? If so, what is the use of pretending that we are patriotic, and that we desire to establish the welfare and uphold the good name of the province of New Brunswick?

A FORWARD STEP

A very important decision was arrived at by the German Street Brotherhood last evening, when a resolution was adopted in favor of a federation of church brotherhoods in the city and a strong committee was appointed to take the matter up at once with the other brotherhoods. This question was discussed last evening, but no action taken. That the movement is taking shape thus early in the season means that we are getting much closer to the time when the united Christian manhood of the city will make its influence more strongly felt in regard to important questions relating to community welfare. This breaking down of the barriers is a great forward step and will mean much for St. John. There are questions concerning which there are no differences of opinion in the various churches, and which would be solved much more easily and quickly by organized effort having behind it the driving force of the churches. The matters concerning which members of different denominations are of one mind are of infinitely greater importance than their points of difference. The realization of this fact is leading to co-operation, and such united action as must be of immense benefit to the whole community.

The best evidence of the truth of what has just been said is found in the action of the German Street Brotherhood last night in the matter of the Free Kindergarten. They had sent a delegation to the annual meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association asking what they could do to assist it in its work. Last night a delegation set before the brotherhood the financial needs of the work, and a resolution was adopted and a committee appointed to take up at once with other brotherhoods the question of raising immediately sufficient funds to take the financial burden for the current year off the shoulders of the devoted ladies who are carrying on this work under such a severe handicap. The brotherhood, and in this also it will surely have the support of the other brotherhoods, will further endeavor to have provision made within a reasonable period for the incorporation of the Free Kindergarten into the public school system, as is the case in other provinces, and should long ago have been the case, so far as the cities and towns are concerned, in the province of New Brunswick.

The announcement that more than a score of students of the University of New Brunswick are preparing to enlist for foreign service shows that the patriotic spirit is taking a firmer hold upon our young men throughout the province.

Arrangements have been made for a great military meeting for men only at the Opera House on Friday evening. It may be hoped that the house will not be filled with old men. Those to whom the appeal is to be made are the young men, and those who are past middle life should fill some other engagement on that particular evening.

The mystery of how German cruisers were able to get supplies and go on harassing British commerce in the Pacific is partially explained by the official announcement, made by the Chilean government, that German cruisers have violated the neutrality of Chile by capturing neutral ships, seizing coal and provisions, and making a rendezvous at Juan Fernandez. A cable from Buenos Ayres says that a battle between German and British fleets is expected to take place at any hour of that coast.

The St. John firm who announced that married men from their employ, and also unmarried men who are the chief support of their families, and who go to the front, will be given full pay during their absence, and single men with no one dependent on them half pay, have set a splendid example of genuine patriotism. The members of the firm realize that the men who go to the front are really still in their service since they are going to fight for the continued safety of Canada, her liberty, her homes, and her business interests.

The death of Cardinal Aristides Cavallari, Patriarch of Venice, is reported. He was seventy-five years old and had been a cardinal since 1907.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG,
DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store—a 50 cent bottle of "Weythe's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

CHEAP MEALS FOR MEN
BY SALVATION ARMY

New Hotel in Bangor—Stew,
Coffee and Bread Ten Cents

(Bangor Commercial)

Meals are to be served at the new Salvation Army hotel commencing Wednesday, announced Adj. A. E. Armstrong, Monday. The meals will be of the simplest sort, but will be nourishing and wholesome. It is the aim of the proprietors to furnish a meal that will be as cheap as possible, and still have plenty of food value. A typical meal will consist of meat stew and two cups of coffee with bread, for the small sum of ten cents.

Another departure that will prove of use to charitably disposed Bangor people who are frequently asked for a "dime to get a plate of beans" by members of the unemployed army, will be tickets to be issued by the Salvation Army, good for a meal at the building. In this way one can be sure that the recipient of the meal really gets a meal instead of some thing that is nothing to be alarmed at. You have no appetite, digestion is impaired, and there is weakness and irregularity of other bodily organs. You feel tired in body and mind, and find that you lack the energy to attend to the daily task.

You may not realize that these are the symptoms of nervous prostration and the danger signals which warn you that some form of paralysis is the next step of development.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the most successful restorative for the nerves that has ever been offered to the pub-for intoxication. One man who had been a hard drinker, having his home paid there by a relative. Since staying at the hotel he has not touched liquor. Other instances of the same nature could be mentioned.

In the dormitory where each man has a strong steel lock at his bedside, twenty-seven beds are provided for 20 cents a night or $1 a week. Twelve beds are sold in rooms at twenty-five cents a night, or $1.25 a week. Twenty-two beds at 35 cents or $1.50 a week, and four beds at fifty cents a night or $2 a week are provided.

Of the 1039 men about forty did not have the wherewithal to pay their room rent, and were registered as charity. Others who promised to pay were registered on the books as "standoffs." Some of these will pay and some will not. On one night recently out of about sixty men registered, four were charity and sixteen were standoffs.

This has been proven in many thousands of cases similar to the one described in this letter.

Mrs. Thos. Allan, R.F.D., 5, Sombra, Ont., writes:—"Five years ago I suffered a complete breakdown, and frequently had palpitation of the heart. Since that illness I have had dizzy spells, had no power over my limbs (neuritis or ataxia) and could not walk straight. At night I would have severe nervous spells, with heart palpitation, and would shake as though I had the ague. I felt improvement after using the first box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after continuing the treatment can now walk, eat and sleep well, have no nervous spells and do not require heart medicine. I have told several of my neighbors of the splendid results obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

A captain of hussars gave a dinner to the men of his squadron the night before they left for the front.

"Now, my lads," he said, "treat this dinner as you will the enemy." And they set to with a will.

After dinner he discovered one of the men stowing away bottles of champagne into a bag, and, highly indignant, he demanded to know what he meant by such conduct.

"I'm only obeying orders, sir," said the man.

"Obeying orders!" roared the captain.

"What do you mean, sir?"

"You told us to treat the dinner like the enemy, sir, and when we met the enemy, sir, those we don't kill we take prisoners."
