

"I ATTRIBUTE MY CURE SOLELY

And Entirely To Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

Hull, Que., Dec. 24th, 1909.
 "For the past twelve years I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. I could not digest my food and everything caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation and at times I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks.
 Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicine but did me no good. My weight came to only 80 pounds and everyone thought I was going to die. Finally, I had the good fortune to try "Fruit-a-tives" and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy, I steadily improved.
 Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds and this is more than I ever weighed even before my illness.
 I attribute my cure solely and entirely to "Fruit-a-tives" and can never praise them too much for saving my life. To all who suffer from Dyspepsia and Constipation, I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" as a miraculous remedy."

Trade and Loyalty

(St. Andrew's Beacon.)
 During the reciprocity campaign, Canadians were told with all seriousness that the adoption of reciprocity would bring about annexation with the United States—that our people would not be able to withstand the lure of American money. Now that the United States has revised its tariff downward and has placed many articles that were in the reciprocity pact on the free list, Canadians who circulated and believed this silly talk will have their silliness and chicanery abundantly demonstrated.

SUFFERED AWFUL PAINS

For Sixteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moretown, Vermont.—"I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and was thin, weak and nervous. When I would lie down it would seem as if I was going right down out of sight into some dark hole, and the window curtains had faces that would peep out at me, and when I was out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains.
 "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."
 Mrs. W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Moretown, Vermont.

Another Case.
 Gifford, Iowa.—"I was troubled with female weakness, also with displacement. I had very severe and steady headache, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."
 Mrs. D. M. MILL-SLIGLE, Gifford, Iowa.

NEW OCCUPATION FOR BLIND GIRLS

Successful as Telephone Operators

KEEN HEARING HELPS

So Far Work Limited to Private Exchanges — Seeking Simpler Board For Blind Operators

Baltimore, Sept. 18.—The blind telephone girl has come to stay. An exceptional girl two years ago passed the severe tests of the work and has since then been a conspicuous example of what the blind, when gifted in other ways, may do, but now a Maryland board for the blind has turned out five other well-trained girls, and the managers believe that they will be able to open this field of work to many other girls. These six pioneers, who are leading the way for other blind girls of the future, are working with the regulation switchboards, but efforts are being made to evolve a new kind of board which will greatly simplify the training of the girls and increase their efficiency.
 The most difficult board now run by blind girls is that at the Central Young Men's Christian Association. The Young Men's Christian Association is a club, an hotel and a clearing house for many lines of religious, social and athletic activities. Just as an hotel, it has about 200 rooms. The building has here and there eight pay stations besides many house telephones.
 A member of the association is apt to be in any one of a score or more parts of the building when he is asked for over the telephone. But wherever he is the blind girl will find him, if switching and asking and "searching" can locate him. What makes this position difficult is the fact there are not separate phones in every room, but only annunciators by which a bell in a room may be rung, summoning the roomer to the nearest telephone on his floor.
 Succeeded in Asylum
 The girls who have had seven weeks' test here and have given satisfaction are Misses Mary Waters and Elizabeth Lynch. The first blind girl operator was Miss Elsie Sonderman at the Sheppard Pratt asylum. She has been there two years, and now has other duties besides handling the exchange. She directs visitors to the rooms they seek, and has in her mind, ready for immediate reference, a complete map of the whole institution. She took the position after the institution had got satisfactory service from other girls. Her work has been superior to that of any other girl who ever held the position.
 At the Maryland Workshop for the Blind there are two girls who can and do operate the switchboard. They are Miss Louise Hasker and Miss Goldie Rosenthal. James Walker, a teacher at the workshop for the blind, trained all these girls except Miss Sonderman, who got her instruction from an employee of the telephone company who took an interest in her desire to learn the work. Mr. Walker himself is president of the switchboard, and is trying to invent some better board for the use of blind operators. He knows of a case of a blind girl in New York State who operates a telephone exchange.
 Keen at Detecting
 With the present switchboards the girls by the keenness of their ears are almost able to detect at once over which wire the call may come by the falling of the little drop. They always slip their fingers along the board to locate the drop to be sure they have the right one. They plug the trunk wires in the right holes by a fine acquired sense of location, although with this they can always make sure of it by the quick use of their fingers.
 The blind operators keep at hand all the time their stylus and slides for taking down notes. The reports on long-distance calls are later read off to some person to transcribe on the regular blanks.
 Apple Blossoms
 While inspecting his orchard one day last week, Malcolm Dick, of Lower Napoleon, was surprised to find one apple tree in blossom.

GRAND DUKE WAS ARRESTED AS A BURGLAR

Caught by Police When He Entered His Own House by Window—Spent Night in Cells

Dresden, Saxony, Sept. 18.—Arrested for climbing through his own window at night and for stealing his own watch and wallet of money, being locked up till morning in a German police station was the experience of Grand Duke Gabriel Constantinovich a short time ago. All Dresden is laughing at the story.
 It appears that the grand duke, who, when traveling for his own pleasure, never has with him more than one attendant, was supping at a restaurant in the town when he met some ladies whom he found so entertaining that he asked them to go for a motor drive. The ladies accepted. He then discovered that he was without money, his attendant being in like condition. Indeed, his companion was worse off, for the supper of which the two had partaken had been so generous that the attendant declared he could never find his way home to get money.
 The grand duke decided he must go himself. Arriving at the door of the house he had taken as a temporary residence, he discovered he was without a latch-key. Being an athlete, this troubled him little, and, springing lightly upon the window ledge, he clambered into the house, secured money, a revolver, and his latch-key, and nimbly leaped out onto the street again. There he found himself in the hands of a stalwart police officer.
 "Now, I've caught you red-handed," exclaimed the burly officer in triumph.
 In vain the grand duke protested that the house was his, and the property in his hands belonged to him. The policeman would not listen to explanations, but hauled him off to the police station, where his money, revolver and watch were taken from him as evidence of his guilt. Furthermore, the patrolman swore he recognized the grand duke's features the face of a dangerous burglar wanted by the police. The grand duke spent the night in jail.
 Next morning a superior officer, possessing superior intelligence, identified Constantinovich, and in a terrible state of tremor the police hastened to apologize.
 The grand duke's humor soon relieved their minds. He promised not to make fuss about the affair and departed laughing heartily over the adventure, swearing he would never again enter his house by the window while in Germany.

 Grand Duke Gabriel is the son of Constantin Constantinovich, one of the Czar's uncles, and is much liked for his simplicity and good-humor.

Daily Hints For the Cook

Entire Wheat Roll
 Sift together 2 cups entire wheat flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 cup (scant) molasses, 1 1/4 cups sour milk. Steam two hours in pound baking powder tin, allowing space for rising.
 Coffee Mousse
 Yolks of eggs beaten. Add 2-3 cup sugar and 1-3 cup cold coffee (strong), then 1 pint cream which has been whipped solid, put into a lard pail and set it into a large pail of snow and salt or even right outdoors. Pack for about three hours.

The Fredericton Fair

Fredericton, Sept. 17.—The biggest attendance of the week marked the third day of the Fredericton exhibition. With favorable weather during the balance of the week the record of attendance made in 1911 will be surpassed. Judging in cattle and poultry, two of the strongest departments of the fair is pretty well completed. In the other departments it will continue tomorrow. So far the exhibition has been remarkably free from disturbance or misconduct. Some shows upon the midway to which objection had been taken, were closed today.

Many Children Injured

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 17.—A collapsible platform, sixteen feet above the ground, on which 731 pupils of the Poughkeepsie High School were grouped for a photograph, gave way shortly after noon today. Fifteen pupils were terribly injured; twelve of them were taken to the Vassar and General Hospitals, most of them suffering from fractured arms and legs.

Fragrance

WHEN you open a tin of Red Rose Coffee, you will surely be pleased with its unusual fragrance, and you will note particularly the small, even grains, free of the yellow flake or chaff which you have always been accustomed to see in the ground coffee you have used. This is the result of our new crushing process. The small grains settle quickly, so the coffee is never muddy, but always bright and clear. You will be convinced before you taste it, that it is a coffee of unusual quality.
