

Who's that knocking at the kitchen door?

Why, it's Mrs. Edwards round again—she's always ready to lend a hand with the cooking. That nourishing home-made Irish soup of hers is a real dish-of-all-work—useful in a hundred ways.

It's fine and tasty by itself. It's the secret of a savoury sauce. It's the making of a made dish. And, to bring out the goodness of your own scup and gravies and hashes and meat puddings there's nothing like adding

EDWARDS' DESICCATED SOUPS

Prime beef and the finest of Irish vegetables—that's what Mrs. Edwards puts in it; nothing but what's pure and delicious. As there is no strong added flavouring, it will blend perfectly with any other soup. Remember to boil it for half an hour.

5c. per packet.

Edwards' Desiccated Soups are made in three varieties—Brown, Tomato, White. The Brown variety is a thick, nourishing soup prepared from beef and fresh vegetables. The other two are purely vegetable soups.

Lots of dainty new dishes in our new Cook Book. Write for a copy post free.

HOPE TO SHARE IN MILLIONS GROWING THROUGH CENTURIES

Montreal Family After Part of The Famous Wertz Fortune in Holland

Montreal, Oct. 18.—Woven around three hundred millions of dollars which have been accumulating in the vaults of the National Bank of Holland for two and one half centuries and in the distribution of which a Montreal family hope to participate there is a story of adventure and intrigue which in dramatic interest rivals the conceptions of Dumas or Balzac.
Link by link, the descendants of Paul Wertz, soldier of fortune, East Indian adventurer, lieutenant of Gustavus Adolphus and field marshal of Holland, have riveted a chain which proves that the will produced after his death in 1676, by his housekeeper, Johanna van der Planken, was a forgery and that the millions of guilders be acquired trading in the Dutch East Indies are the lawful property of the descendants of his step-brothers, and stepsister, Peter, Heinrich and Anna.
These early handed themselves together to secure justice and have battled against varying forces to secure their rights. The last attempt was made in 1874 when the Dutch courts decided that the will which purported to have everything Wertz had acquired during his career of adventure to Johanna van der Planken and the child whose percentage she endeavored to fasten on the dead general was a forgery. Lack of funds then resulted in the case being dropped, but now three Wertz family associations are unitedly striving to re-open the case and wrest from the Dutch banks the money which they have tacitly admitted they cannot legally hold, an admission contained in an offer to restore thirty-two million dollars, made sixty years ago.
Negotiations carried on with the Dutch government during the last summer by W. J. Snyder, of Chicago and his wife, who is a direct descendant of a nephew of the field marshal Jacob Wertz, the first of the name to come to America who landed in Pennsylvania in 1770, give the highest hopes that the present claim will succeed.
The Netherlands government offered to compromise the case again.
Mr. Snyder, who is a son of the late George C. Snyder, of Wales, Ont., and whose mother resides with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Morgan, here, it is also a descendant through a maternal ancestor of his father, and Mrs. George Snyder, and her daughter are therefore entitled to a share.
"I never thought we had a chance of seeing any of this money until a few weeks ago when Will and his wife came back from Europe," said his sister, Mrs. Morgan. However, they are extremely confident now that justice is about to be done and this money at last restored. Some important discoveries were made during his visit to Amsterdam which will be communicated to the Wertz family association very soon. The money is now in the hands but they have greatly strengthened the case, I am told.

STOLEN ART WORK RECOVERED

Milan, Oct. 18.—Good luck has just believen several Legation's the eleven devoted to a stolen work of art as it was about to be smuggled out of Italy.
Until recently these hang in the chapel of the Misericordia Fraternity of that city a famous portrait of Christ, painted by Domenico Cresti, Fiesanino, an Un-derman artist of the sixteenth century.
An American collector made his appearance a month ago, offering $20,000 for this work of art. This was declined, but a few nights afterwards the picture was stolen. The police suspect a member of a confraternity of mendicants, who, during his begging rounds, was often seen hobnobbing with criminals, and he was arrested.
On the police instituting a search at the house of one of his companions, the lost canvas was discovered, already packed in an attic, and labelled in readiness to be shipped across the Atlantic.
Those in the house were arrested.

BELIEVE THEY HAVE FOUND A RAPHAEL

Rome, Oct. 18.—Some art critics have for some time held the view that a small work preserved in the Gallery Tonia at Brescia might be a portion of an altar piece painted by Raphael at Citta di Castello, in Umbria, and portraying the coronation of Saint Nicholas of Tolentino.
Recently Commendatore Ricci, the director of the Gallery, has started a country-wide crusade through correspondence to require that a marriage license should be issued six months before used; through the issuance of a license, at least six months before it could be legally used, an immediate stop would be put to hasty marriages and equally sudden divorces. By this plan there would be no such thing as a twenty-four hour engagement.
"In this country," he says, "young people meet with such freedom and are so completely in command of their future that overhaste in marriage is the great fault."

CITIES STEEPED IN VICE

Toronto, Oct. 18.—The cities are steeped in immorality. Vancouver with its legalized segregated vice centres has a moral legacy that is demoralizing the youth of the city; the white slave centres are hell holes for poor, unwilling victims and for the ruin of manhood.
Thus did Rev. Dr. W. T. Graham denounce the social state of things in the cities of the west in an address to the members of the Baptist Ministerial Association on the religious and social conditions of the west and the far west.
Rev. Dr. Graham went on to remark that these slave houses were windowless penitentiaries but he was glad to say that the moral sentiment of the cities was determined to institute a campaign which would end this abominable traffic in girls.

BIG LUMBER OPERATIONS

The Miramichi Lumber Co. has signed contracts for $200,000 worth of lumber.
The company will purchase 5,000,000 feet, making 40, 000,000 feet in all. Of their own cut 12, 000,000 feet will be on crown lands and the balance on their own and other private lands. The most of their cut will be pulp wood.
