ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

CUTIE SAVES THE CORN CROP

Mister Crow gave one wild scream and flew off. When Mister Crow left Mister Bases' store in such a hurry, he bumped pell mell into Cutie Cottontail, who had come in for a bag of candy. "Polite, isn't he?" remarked Cutie, for instead of saying "Excuse me," Mister Crow had said, "Get out of my way!" rudely.

"I'm afraid he'll get into trouble yet," said the fairman, shaking his head. "He came to find out when Farmer Jones was going to plant his corn, and when he discovered that it was already in the ground, he couldn't wait to get away to eat it up."

"What do you want to buy, Cutie?" asked Nick. "I'll wait on you."

"Ma gamme a nickel," said Cutie. "I want a nickel's worth of candy. I'll pick it out."

The little rabbit boy pressed his nose down against the glass case and looked over all the goodies.

"Gimme a cent's worth of those black licorish balls," he said, "and a stick of chewing gum—that kind in the pink paper, and a strawberry lolly-pop, and a cent's worth of chocolate drops, and a cent's worth of marshmallows."

When he was going home he passed the cornfield just as Mister Scare Crow arrived, flapping his wings in great excitement over the good news he had had.

Mrs. Crow had just told him that she had made a discovery that day. Not only had Farmer Jones planted his corn, but it had started to grow.

"Ha, ha, ha!" screamed Mister Crow, lighting on the fence with a great commotion. "Here's where I have a feast right now. Look at that old scarecrow out there—the silly thing! Anybody would know that old gun of his is only a stick and hasn't got any bullets in it. In all the years I've lived here, he's never shot it once. Who's afraid?"

So he set to work and started to pull up the green corn shoots, gobbling them down as fast as he could.

Cutie Cottontail came along and stopped. Then he sat up on his hind legs and ate his candy. First he ate his marshmallows, then he ate his chocolate drops, then he ate his licorish balls, then his chewing gum and his lollypop he stuck into his pocket.

That left the little red and green striped bag empty.

By this time Mister Crow was over near the place where the scarecrow stood pointing his gun, but he stopped eating long enough to call out, "Mister Samrty gave a party and nobody came but an old black crow, and that's me. Well, your party is very nice, thank you, Mister Crow, and I'll come again."

Then he went on eating.

Cutie sat there watching Mister Crow and thinking he'd better be getting home pretty soon so his Ma would be worried.

"I'll blow up the bag and get," he said to himself.

So he twisted the top of the bag together, leaving only a teeny weeny hole—then he blew into it as hard as he could. When it was good and tight he went bang! The bag blew up like a cannon.

Mister Crow gave one wild scream and flew off as hard as he could go.

"The old scarecrow shot me after all!" he gasped. "Never let any of the children go near that field, Carrie. Our lives are in danger. It was only a miracle that I escaped. Dear, dear! Who'd have thought it?"

Cutie Cottontail hopped home, not knowing that he had saved Farmer Jones' corn crop. At least he never said anything about it.

HOME MAY OPEN IN SEPTEMBER

Rev. George Gardiner, of Moncton, financial agent of the proposed Interprovincial Home for Girls and Women at Moncton, announced yesterday in Centenary church that the building would be under construction this summer. It is hoped that it will be ready for occupancy by September.

Mr. Gardiner was the preacher in the morning. Rev. Robert G. Fulton, pastor, conducted the service. He said the St. John district meeting of the Methodist church would be held in Carmarthen street church, beginning Wednesday. Thursday the sessions would be open to the public. The united prayer services for the summer will begin this week in Central Baptist church.

WINDSOR CLERGYMAN HERE.

Rev. J. A. Anglin, of Windsor, N. S., was the preacher in St. Matthew's church yesterday and gave two inspiring sermons. In the evening his subject was "Seasonable Speech." Mr. Anglin said neither continual speech nor lack of speech was desirable, but rather the intermediate course, the right word at the right time, and said words of comfort, of encouragement or of warning timely spoken could convey great blessing to those who needed such words.

POLICEMEN ON VACATION.

Detective Saunders, with Police Constables Bettle and Quinn, started out on their annual two weeks holidays yesterday, while Police Constables Durnan and Phinney, who have been enjoying themselves for that period of time, have returned for duty.

OFFICERS INSTALLED. In the Carmarthen street Methodist church last night the newly elected Sunday school officers and teachers were installed. The service was conducted by Rev. E. E. Styles, the pastor, who addressed George Calhoun, superintendent, and afterwards addressed the executive. Mr. Calhoun gave an address to his officers and teachers. Mr. Styles gave a forceful sermon. The choir sang with splendid effect Dudley Buck's "Rock of Ages." The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the close.

Alkali in Shampoos
Bad For Washing Hair

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulishid coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonsful of Mulishid is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your drug dealer gives you Mulishid. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

AM I FIT? I should say so. I eat like a navy and sleep like a top, and the day is not half long enough for all I want to do.

Even the youngsters can't tire me out—and they always expect "Grandpa" to be the leading spirit of the game—whether it's baseball, football, or blind man's buff.

Twenty years ago I didn't feel as fit as I feel now; but at forty they say a man is either a fool or a physician—and I decided to be the latter. Yes—it's twenty years ago since I first started taking Kruschen Salts in my breakfast cup of coffee or tea every morning—just as much as will lie on a 10c piece. Can't taste it, but it makes all the difference. It made a new man of me. Why don't you try it?

You need not hesitate about the price—it only costs half a cent a day—a 75c bottle of Kruschen Salts lasts me three months, so for about 3 cents a week I keep as fit as a fiddle and as happy as a sandboy.

MOTHER SAW TANLAC BUILD UP DAUGHTER

Mrs. Baker, of Kingston, Gives Medicine Full Credit.

"When I think of the wonderful change that has taken place in Kathleen's health, I just feel like praising Tanlac to everyone," recently said Mrs. G. Baker, 12 Earl street, Kingston, Ont., in describing the benefits her daughter, one of Kingston's most popular young ladies, received from the famous treatment.

"Before taking Tanlac, Kathleen was dreadfully weak and nervous and had such severe headaches she was almost frantic. Her sleep was broken and restless, she had deep circles under her eyes and would hardly eat anything. "But Tanlac has built her up until she is bubbling over with health and energy. She eats heartily, sleeps soundly, never seems to get nervous or have a headache and enjoys life to the limit. Tanlac is indeed a grand medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation, made and recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.
