Opinions of Papers in England And New York on Election Results

London Speaks of "Unnatural Combination of Borden's Tory Jingoism and Bourassa's Anti-Imperialism"—Belief That Canadians Will Regret Yesterday's Vote—Sir Wilfrid Laurier

New York, Sept. 22.—A London cable to the Tribune this morning says:—"The Canadian election has a direct bearing upon political issues in the United Kingdom. Tariff reformers welcome the defeat of the Laurier government and the repudiation of its reciprocity policy, because that result involves a revival of Joseph Chamberlain's proposals for preferential trade and closer fiscal relations with the colonies. They were willing to put up with the unnatural coalition between Robert L. Borden's jingo Toryism and Henri Bourassa's anti-imperialistic nationalism, provided their own shattered tariff could receive from Canada an impulse which might carry it to the top of the polls at the next general election. On the other hand, were in sympathy with the Laurier government, on the question of establishment of a free exchange of natural products with America, and were not anxious for a revival of tariff reform as the Unionist party's dominating issue. "Le Vieux Coq," as Sir Wilfrid has styled himself, has been admired by the leaders of both parties here as the greatest of present day colonial statesmen and the menace of American annexation, however potent it may be proved in the dominion, has not been regarded seriously in any quarters here. While the Chamberlainian partisans for their own purposes, have wanted to turn down Canada's grand old man, English Liberals have been hoping to see him remain in power with the adoption of reciprocity by the dominion as a natural consequence of the gravitation toward the nearest and the largest market.

NEW YORK PAPERS

World and Herald See That Canadian People Will Yet Regret Course Taken

New York, Sept. 22.—The New York World (Ind. Democracy), says:—"The credit for the result in the Canadian elections must be variously apportioned. Part of it belongs to the manufacturing interests, which are rightly protected in Canada, as in the United States, and resent their slight interference with their privileges to tax consumers. Part of it belongs to the Canadian Pacific Railway, which is more concerned about its own dividends than about the welfare of the Canadian people. Part of it belongs to the United Empire Loyalists, who have never yet forgiven the United States for the war of the revolution. Part of it belongs to the Conservative party, which foolishly feared that reciprocity might lead to annexation and the loss of Canada's national dignity. Part of it belongs to the Laurier government, which appealed to every prejudice and passion in the campaign to dislodge the Laurier government.

Will Yet See it a Disaster

BORDEN'S TROUBLES ARE ALREADY THICK UPON HIM

Pressure of Claims To Place in Cabinet

THERE'S TALK OF HAZEN

Fowler and Crocket Making Things Hot—Dr. Daniel May Go To the Senate—Liberals Still Hold Five of Nine Provinces And Divide Sixth

When the Liberals of St. John had recovered from the unexpected shock of yesterday's defeat in the country at large they began to take stock today, and to find that there were some complications. It was noted that the Liberals still hold five of the nine provinces, as follows:—New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Quebec, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. They also divided P. E. Island. The Conservatives got 72 out of 88 seats in Ontario, and all the seats in Manitoba and British Columbia. The division in these three provinces is far too one-sided to last. The people were swept off their feet by a false appeal, and it would be ridiculous to assume that the present conditions of relative membership parties will continue.

Borden's Troubles Start

Now is the hour of trouble for Mr. Borden. Already the clamor for the spoils of office is ringing in the ears of the new premier of Canada. Particularly in St. John today the air is full of rumors, and one is to the effect that Premier Hazen might retire from the provincial field and take a place in the Conservative Government at Ottawa, and that this would be followed by a similar proposal to the electors of the province in the general provincial elections with Mr. Fleming as premier. Should this be the way it is worked out there would have to be a seat found for Mr. Hazen. The Conservatives express hope of gaining the St. John City seat by a recount of the votes, and it is openly said that if it is the intention of Mr. Pugsley's election, this falling, there is talk of making Dr. Daniel a senator, which he is said to be willing, and that Mr. Hazen run here. Again Mr. Hazen is said to be willing to give up his seat.

The expectations of Mr. Fowler and his friends can be judged from the fact that it was canvassed in his favor during yesterday's election here. He would be the representative in the Conservative cabinet and was acclaimed "our next best thing" by the Conservatives. Mr. Hazen is said to be willing to give up his seat. PERSIAN RELIGIOUS LEADER TO MAKE A VISIT TO LONDON

Head of the Bahai Religion Which Numbers Three Millions of Followers

London, Sept. 22.—Abdul Baha Abbas, the mysterious Persian prophet of the Bahai religion, which has, at a moderate estimate, three million followers, is now travelling through Europe on his way to London, where he will make a short stay and meet his English adherents. His movements are kept secret. Even those few people in London who know him personally cannot name the date of his coming. He is travelling with a suite of Persian secretaries and interpreters, and one body servant, and during the stay in London will live in Eastern style in a tent. A week or so is also to be spent in Paris.

Madrid, Sept. 22.—Premier Canalejas on leaving the palace last night said to assembled newspaper men: "Gentlemen, I have the pleasure to tell you that the strike is over everywhere. The only strikers left in Madrid are the cab drivers. They have been given ten hours to resume work or have their licenses cancelled."

Mme. de Gogorza said it was not true that the Catholic Church had raised any question as to the validity of her marriage to Mr. de Gogorza on the ground that he had been married before.

THE NEWS AT OTTAWA

Likely November Before Borden Administration is Down to Business--The Next Step in the Proceedings

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 22.—(Special)—Grey on October 6 for England, the resignation of the ministers will be put in as soon as possible. Should it be found impossible to install the new government before October 6, the departure of His Excellency may be delayed. If so, there would be a corresponding delay in the arrival of the Duke of Connaught. The new ministers when named will have to go back to their constituencies for reelection, but as most of the cabinet "probabilities" have been elected by safe majorities, it would not be surprising if they are practically all returned by acclamation. The necessary steps to bring about a change in administration will take some weeks, and it is likely to be some time in November before the Borden administration will meet for organization. In the meantime the necessary money to carry on the public service will have to be raised by government-general's warrant.

The vessel was sunk and the crew had a narrow escape, getting away on pieces of wreckage. It is said that no lives were lost. A heavy fog prevailed on the river at the time.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

AFTER THE BATTLE. The Times new reporter knocked himself out at the editor's desk this morning. "Come in!" roared the editor. The young man opened the door and on tiptoe approached the editor's desk. The editor gave him a brief glance and went on with his work. "Well?" he said presently. "I came to ask you," said the new reporter, turning his hat nervously around in his fingers, "if you would give me an order on the business office for a month's salary in advance. I had some bet on the elections yesterday, and my board bill is due tomorrow."

WILL HAVE MARKED EFFECT ON THE STATES

Reciprocity Defeat as it Applies To The Political Parties There

Influence on Campaign of Taft for Re-Nomination as President—Expresses His Disappointment—Had Only Yesterday Voiced His Belief Agreement Would Carry

Washington, Sept. 22.—The question which is today agitating leaders of political parties and factions throughout the United States, is how their fortunes in the approaching national campaign will be affected by yesterday's defeat of the Laurier government, and Canadian reciprocity. It is evident that the replies will be as varied in character as were the political views of the factions which fought over the question during the special session of congress. Official Washington closely followed the returns from Canada last night, but remained silent as the figures poured in showing the Laurier party had been defeated and reciprocity rejected. The unofficial view was that as Canada had rejected the agreement, there was nothing for the administration to do but to "make the best of a bad job."

President Disappointed

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 22.—President Taft at a banquet here last night, said:—"I have just been informed that reciprocity has failed in Canada. For me it is a great disappointment. I had hoped that it would be put through to prove the correctness of my judgment that it would be a good thing for both countries. It takes two to make a bargain, and if Canada declines to go on doing business as the old stand. There was much speculation here as to whether the result of the election will have upon the president's reception in the insurgent agricultural states, which he has been bitterly opposed because of his advocacy of the reciprocity pact. The president unconditionally was taken completely by surprise and this made his disappointment all the more bitter. He had confidently predicted to his friends as late as yesterday that reciprocity would win in Canada. He had refrained from discussing the issue in any of his public utterances while the elections were pending in Canada, despite the pressure that had been brought to bear upon him since the beginning of his presidency. Yesterday afternoon at Battle Creek, however, with the assurance that whatever he might say could not be misconstrued, the president said that he was confident inasmuch as the dominion polls were about to close, Mr. Taft launched into a reciprocity speech. He spoke with the confidence of one who believed victory to be in sight. "I know," said the president, "that some irresponsible newspapers have called me a trickster and a swindler, and say I in some way deceived or misled unfairly with the ministers of Canada to secure this treaty. Well, I am not conscious of it, and I do not believe they are. There was not any trick about it. The cards were laid on the table."

HON. MR. EMMERSON SPEAKS OF RESULT

Moncton Paper's Views on The Election—Break up Soon To Be Manifest

MR. LOWELL TO THE PEOPLE OF ST. JOHN

James Lowell today wished to thank the citizens of St. John City and County for the support given to him and also for the able manner in which they worked for him. "I not only wish to thank those who voted for me, but also those who saw through the wiles of the Laurier government and voted for me. I have nothing to say but words of praise for Dr. Daniel, the successful candidate. He conducted his campaign on good clean principles and deserves the honor that has fallen upon him."
