Rev. Dr. Talmage Discusses the Law of Right and Wrong and How It is Applied in High and Low Classes, men and did eat grass as oxen. Here is the mightiest of the Babylonish kings. Look at him. He did more for the grandeur of the capital than did all his predecessors or successors. Hanging gardens, reservoirs, aqueducts, palaces, all of his own planning. The bricks that are brought up today from the ruins of Babylon have his name on them. "Nebuchadnezzar, son of Nabopolassor, king of Babylon." He was a great conqueror. He stretched forth his spear toward a nation, and it surrendered. But he plundered the temple of the true God. He lifted an idol. Bel Merodach, and compelled the people to bow down be-fore it, and if they refused they must go through the redhot furnace or be crunched by lion or lioness. So God ed him down.

He was smitten with what physic ians call lycanthropy and fancied that he was a wild beast, and he went out and pastured mid the cattle. God did not excuse him because he had com mitted the sin in high places or be cause the transgression was wide re sounding. He measured Nebuchad nezzar in high places just as he would measure the humblest captive.

But in our time you know as well as I, that there is a disposition to put a halo around iniquity if it is commit ted in conspicuous places and if it is wide resounding and of large propor-tions. Ever and anon there has been an epidemic of crimes in high places and there is not a state or city and hardly a village which has not been called to-look upon astounding forgery or an absconding bank cashier president or the wasting of trust fund or swindling mortgages. I propose in carrying out the suggestion of my text, as far as I can, to scatter the fascinations around iniquity and show you that sin is sin and wrong is wrong whether in high place or low place and that it will be dealt with by that God who dealt with impalaced Nebuchad-

He has administered, perhaps, for a dead has administered, perhaps, for a desc friend; he is an attorney, and money passes from debtor to creditor through his hands; or he is in a commercial es-tablishment and gets a salary for the discharge of his responsibilities; or he is treasurer of a philanthropic institu-tion; and money for the suffering goes hrough his hands; or he has so fice in city or state or nation, and taxes and subsidies and supplies and sal-arles are in his hands. ## SOME PLAIN QUESTIONS.

There are hundreds of young men who have good blood. Shall I ask three or four plain questions? your habits as good as when you left. your father's house? Have you a pool ticket in your pocket? Have you a fraudulent document? Have you been experimenting to see how accurate an imitation you could make o your employer's signature? Oh, you have good blood. Remember your father's prayers. Remember your mother's example. Turn not in an evil way. Have you been going astray? Come back. Have you ventured out too far? As I stand in pulpits looking over audiences sometimes my heart fails me. There are so many tragedies present, 'so many who have sacrificed their integrity, so many far away from God. Why, my brother, there have been too many prayers offered for you to have you go overboard. And there e venturing own into sin. al my heart aches to call them back. At Brighton Beach or Long Branch you have seen men go down into the surf to bathe, and they waded, out farther and farther, and you got anxi-ous about them. You said, "I wonder of the core suite?" So there has been a great deal of scination thrown around libertinism. If they can swim?" And you then stood and shouted: "Come back! Come back! You will be drowned!" They waved their hand back, saying, "No danger," They kept on wading deeper down and farther out from shore, until after awhile a great wave shore, until after awhile a great wave with a strong undertow fook them out, their corpses the next day washed on the beach. So I see men wading down into sin farther and farther, and I call to them: "Come back! Come back! You will be lost! You will be lost!" They wave their hand back, saying, "No danger, no danger." Deeper down and deeper down, until after awhile a wave sweeps them out and sweeps them off forever. Oh, come back! The one forthest away may come them on forever. On, come bar a come one farthest away may come. "Oh," you say, "you don't know where I came from; you don't know what my history has been; you don't know what iniquity I have plotted. I have gone through the whole cata-logue of sin." My brother, I do not know the story, but I tell you this-the door of mercy is wide open. Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." Though you have been polluted with the worst of crimes, though you have been smitten with the worst of lepros-ies, though you have been fired with all evil passions, this moment on your brow, hot with iniquitous indulgence, may be set the flashing coronet of a

The law pur-sues it, smites it, incarcerates it, tries to destroy it. You know as well as I the better, and the getting of it on larger scale only proves to them their greater ingenuity. There is a glitter that society becomes lenient in propor-tion as impurity becomes affluent or is in elevated circles, and finally, society thrown around about all these things Young men have got to find out that God looks upon sin in a very different is silent or disposed to palliate. Where is the law that dares and the sale was not consummated take the brazen wretches and put their faces in an Iron frame of a state pristerview, and he wrote home to the father of the young man, living in the on window?

Sometimes it seems to me as if so-clety were going back to the state of morals of Herculaneum when it sculp-tured its vileness on pillars and temple wall and nothing but the lava of a burning mountain could hide the immensity of crime. At what time God will rise up and extirpate these evils upon society I know not, not whether he will do it by fire or hurricane or earthquake; but a holy God I do not think will stand it much longer. I believe the thunderbolts are hissing hot and that when God comes to chastise the community for these sins, against which he has uttered himself more bitterly than against any other, the fate of Sodom and Gomorrah will be toler-able as compared with the fate of our There are hundreds of young men under the pressure, under the fascinations thrown around about commercial iniquity. We want about 10,000 pulpits in Am erica to thunder "All adulterers and whoremongers shall have their place in the hell that burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." It is hell on earth and hell forever. We have got too understand that iniquity on Columbia heights or Fifth Avenue or Beacon hill is as damnable in the ght of God as it is in the slums. Whether it has canopled couch of eld-er down or dwells amid the putridity f a low tenement house, God is after it in his vengeance. Yet the pulpit of the Christian church has been so cowed down on this subject that it hardly dares speak, and men are almost pologetic when they read the Ten Commandments.

THE SACREDNESS OF LIFE.

Then look at the fascinations thrown around assassination. There are in all communities men who have taken the lives of others unlawfully, not as executioners of the law, and they go scot free. You say they had their provoca-tions. God gave life, and he alone has a right to take it, and he may take it by visitation of providence or by an executioner of the law, who is his mes-senger. But when a man assumes that divine prerogative he touches the low-est repth of crime.

Society is alert for certain kinds of murder. If a citizen going along the road at night is waylaid and slain by a robber, we all want the villian ar-rested and executed.
