HOPEWELL HILL.

HOPEWELL HILL, June 3.—There was a very enjoyable family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newcomb of this place, yesterday, the occasion being the celebration of the 51st anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb's marriage. All of the sons and daughters, except two were present, and a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A sumptuous repast was served, and before the gathering dispersed Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb were presented with two handsome easy chairs, and a purse of money. It is something remarkable that of the original family of eleven children all are still living, grown to manhood and womanhood and all married. Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb are still in the seventies and are active and well.

DEATH OF WM. EWING.

The death on Saturday evening of Wm. Ewing, 67, at 237 Duke street, was heard with deep regret by his many friends in the city. The deceased gentleman had a large circle of friends and acquaintances and will be greatly missed by the people of St. John.

Mr. Ewing was a man of sterling character, upright in all his dealings, and was the same in the counting room as he was in the councils of the Free-Methodist church and in the domestic circle. Up to a brief time before his death, which was a peaceful one, he enjoyed life in his usual way with his friends and his own family. His old associates on the Sun will cherish his memory as that of a genial, companionable man.

Mr. Ewing was 71 years of age. He was a member of the firm of J. & J. Egan & Co., wholesale dry goods importers, from 1874 until the dissolution of that firm in 1881. He was also a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1881 to 1884. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1884 to 1887. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1887 to 1890. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1890 to 1893. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1893 to 1896. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1896 to 1899. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1899 to 1902. He was a member of the firm of Egan & Co. from 1902 to 1905.
