

said College, as to the Governors, thereby incorporated, shall seem proper, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

6. The Governors hereby incorporated, at any general meeting assembled, shall, from time to time, and as they shall think fit, make and establish such statutes and ordinances for the instruction care and government of the students, the management of the property of the College; the appointment of the President, Professors, Fellows, and Scholars (the President always to be a member of the Church of England); and also touching any matter or thing respecting the College, which to them shall seem meet.

7. The College, hereby incorporated, shall be taken to be an University, with all usual privileges of such an institution, whether relating to the conferring of degrees and honors, or otherwise.

8. From the time of this Act coming into operation until the appointment of a full board of Governors, by virtue thereof, the present Governors, shall, notwithstanding this Act, continue to exercise all the powers which are now vested in them, by the Act hereby repealed, and the royal charter which they now hold.

9. All academical honors and degrees, and all rights, powers, privileges, and authorities, now had, held, or exercised by any person, by virtue of the Act hereby repealed, or of the charter hereinbefore referred to, except so far as they may be necessarily taken away, altered, abridged, or affected, by, or in consequence of this Act, shall be had, held, and exercised, in relation to the College hereby incorporated, as fully as they now had, held, or exercised.

10. The Royal Charter, incorporating "the Governors, President, and Fellows of King's College, at Windsor, in the Province of Nova Scotia," shall not in any manner be affected by this Act, except so far as may be necessary to give effect to this Act.

11. This Act shall not come into operation until Her Majesty's assent be signified thereto.
