

THE USE OF FLOWERS.
BY MARY HOWLEY.

God might have made the earth bring forth
Enough for great and small,
The oak tree and the cedar tree
Without a flower at all.

He might have made enough, enough,
For every want of ours,
For luxury, medicine, and toil,
And yet have made no flower.

The ore within the mountain mine
Requires none to grow,
Nor doth it need the water power
To make the river flow.

The clouds might give abundant rain,
The night sky might give light,
And the herb that keeps life in man,
Might yet have drunk them all.

Then, therefore, wherefore were they made,
All dyes with rainbow light,
All fashioned with supremest grace,
Up-springing day and night?

Springing in valleys green and low,
And the mountains high,
Where no man passeth by,
Our outward life requires them not,
They, therefore, lead their birth,
To minister delight in man,
To beautify the earth.

To comfort man—to whisper hope,
Whenever his faith is dim,
For whom earth for the flowers,
Will care more than for him!

ENGLAND, IRELAND, SCOTLAND, CANADA!
BY WM. PIERCE LEECH.

Hurrah! Hurrah! for ENGLAND!
The Goddess of the Sea—
The empire island of the brave,
The birth place of the free,
The land of honor, wealth and fame,
Of love and commerce too—
The land of many a noble name,
From the Nile to Waterloo!

Hurrah! Hurrah! for IRELAND!
The land of love and song,
Where green hills with lavish hand,
Fings light among the throng;
The land where minstrel warriors
First struck the destinies strain,
That made the shamrock valley ring
With music's prairie ring.

Hurrah! Hurrah! for SCOTLAND!
The land of ancient worth,
Where learning her fair ensign waves,
And science leads the way;
The land of Bruce, of Wallace, of Scott,
And many a hero more—
The land of bright tradition,
And of tartan dress of yore.

Hurrah! Hurrah! for CANADA!
The fairest, brightest gem,
That graces—'neath the ground and foe,
Victoria's diadem!
Properly expand her flag,
And British Union long remain
The envy of the world.

THE CHEMISTRY OF NATURE.
A Self-Acting Laboratory.—The gastric juice which reduces the food to the stomach to a semi-fluid, and the bile which tempers this crude material and adapts it to the purposes of nutrition, are the two principal agents in the production of venous blood. As health depends mainly upon the quality and purity of this fluid, a medicine which acts immediately upon its elements, discharging therefrom every tainted and unwholesome particle capable of feeding or creating disease, must necessarily be the true elixir of health—a sure antidote to the seeds of all internal disorders. In this consists the wonder-working power of Holloway's Pills. They seem literally to compel the stomach and the liver to do their whole duty, and to remove every impurity from its performance. We learn from their distinguished inventor, the wisdom of his medicine, but our own observation as well as the testimony of the world at large, We know that the victim of liver complaint, with attenuated frame, jaundiced skin and lack-lustre eye, rapidly recovers strength, energy and a healthy spirit, under the use of this medicine, and if the disturbance of the internal functions has produced external disease, that too disappears under the successful action of Holloway's Ointment. The liver is a very susceptible organ. It always sympathizes with the stomach, and intermits in eating or drinking, over application to business, anxiety, sudden changes of temperature, and unwholesome atmosphere, and innumerable other causes, tend to derange and obstruct its action. What is the practice of the oracles of the faculty in cases of liver complaint? Their sole remedy is a mineral poison—Quinine, or one of its deadly oxides. Salivate! Salivate! Salivate! to the end, to the end, to the end, another is created. The liver becomes the little ground between a dangerous disorder and a worse remedy, and if the patient escapes with life or without serious consequences, it is by a miracle. Holloway's Pills on the other hand strike at the very source of the disorder, and at the same time give tone to the whole system. Let common sense determine whether it is better to annihilate the virus of disease by an innocuous vegetable preparation, or to administer poison by way of antidote.—N. T. "Sunday Mercury."

SEARCH FOR HAPPINESS.—A wealthy epicure applied to an Arabian doctor for a prescription that would restore his body to health, and give happiness to his mind. The physician advised him to exchange shirts with a man who was perfectly contented with his lot. The patient set out on a journey in pursuit of such a person. After many months spent without accomplishing his object, he was told of a certain cobbler of whom every one had spoken as a man of contentment and happiness. Pursuing the direction given, the traveler was at length rewarded with a sight of the cobbler enjoying a nap on a board. Without ceremony he was aroused from his slumbers, and the important interrogatory, whether he was contented with his lot, was answered in the affirmative.

"Then," said the seeker after happiness, "I have one small boon to ask of your hands. It is that you exchange shirts with me, that by this means I also may become contented and happy."

"Most gladly would I accede to thy request," replied the cobbler, "but—"

"Say, return me home," interrupted the man of wealth; "I say that you may name shall be thine."

"I seek not thy wealth," said the cobbler, "but but—"

"But what?"

"But the truth is—I have no shirt."

EXERCISE.—A fellow drinks three gin cocktails and he is in a state of excitement. A man receives a box of the same—and he is excited. You kick together with a sharp foot boot—and he is excited. You bring the nose of another or spit in his face, and he creates a sensation. In short, you can do nothing in the world without creating excitement, save one thing—have a man to saw wood by the day, and such an example of coolness and real Christian patience, as he will exhibit, is perfectly excruciating.

Self confidence is the first requisite to great undertaking; yet he who forms his opinion of himself, without knowing the powers of other men, is very liable to error, which predominates.

JAMES LUTON,
Tailor and Draper.

WOULD invite the attention of his friends and customers to his present Stock of Goods, which has been completed by recent arrivals per ships John Dunlop, Melville, and Governor, consisting of West of England CLOTHS, FINE BRAVERS, VELVET CLOTHS, FINEST BLAZES, SATIN and EXTRA FINE CLOTHS, WAIST COATINGS, in Berlin, Silk and Velvete, TROUSERS in endless variety—these goods can be recommended as being superior to any yet seen in this Market, and in making them up no care shall be spared to sustain the preference he has hitherto enjoyed.

To the Officers of H. M. Army.
J. L. would beg to state that having been for some years employed in the Central Department of H. M. Military Tailors, 25 Pall Mall, he is prepared to execute in a superior style all orders which may be entrusted.

MEDICAL REVOLUTION!
THE WORLD'S CHANGING.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
THE GREAT COUNTER IRRITANT!
The state of disease often makes it very to the internal organs through the pores of the skin. This penetrating Ointment, melting under the hand as it is rubbed in, is absorbed through the skin, and, reaching the organs of inflammation, promptly and invariably subdues it, wherever located in the kidneys, liver, the lungs, or any other internal organ. It penetrates the surface to the very center of the disease, and communicates with the skin as summer heat passes into the fevered earth diffusing its cool and regenerating influence.

SKIN DISEASES & OLANCULAR SWELLINGS.
Every species of external irritation is quickly reduced by the anti-inflammatory action of this Ointment. Anger, Erysipelas, such as Rubeola, Scarlatina, Measles, Pustules, Bores, Scabs, Itch, Nettle Rash, &c. (or any) &c., die out, to return no more under its application. Hospital experience in all parts of the world proves its utility in the cure of the skin, the measles, the pox, and the gland.

CLEANS, SOFTENS, AND TENDERS.
The effect of this ointment external remedy upon scrofula, and other venereal ulcers and sores, is almost miraculous. It dissolves the pox, and which produces suppuration and gland swellings, and thus the cure which its healing properties afford complete are safe as well as permanent.

WOUNDS, BRUISES, BURNS, AND SCALDS.
In cases of the fracture of the bones, injuries caused by steam explosions, Burns, Scalds, Scabs, Rashes, Strains, or the loss of joints, and contraction of the sinews, it is employed and warmly recommended by the faculty. This ointment has been introduced by its inventor in person into all the leading Hospitals of Europe, and no private household should be without it.

ADENALABLE TESTIMONY.
The Medical Staff of the French and English Armies in the Crimea have officially signed their approval of Holloway's Ointment, as the most reliable remedy for the cure of the skin, the measles, the pox, and the gland.

It is also used by the surgeons of the Allied Navies.

Ask the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:
Blisters, Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Burns, Kingworm, Sores of all kinds, Capped hands, Salt Rheum, Sprains, Catarrhs, Scalds, Stiff Joints, Itch, Swelled Veins, Swelled Uterus, Lumbago, Glands, Venereal Sores, Metastasis, Sore Legs, Wounds of all kinds, Eruptions, Scabs, &c. of every kind. Piles, &c.

* Sold at the Manufactories of Professor Holloway, 80, Maiden Lane, New York, and 214 Strand, London, by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States and the civilized world, in pots, at 25 cents, 50 cents, and 1 dollar.

† There is a considerable saving by taking the Ointment.

N.B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot.
