ALBERT COUNTY DRANGEMEN MEET. Annual Meeting at Edgett's Landing — Officers Elected and General Good Time Enjoyed.

Albert, Dec 2—The annual meeting of the Albert County Drangemen Association was held at Edgett's Landing where the county officers and members were warmly welcomed and entertained by Secy. Banner Lodge in their new hall which has just been completed and is a credit to the brethren of the locality.

The reports of the various county officers show the work of the association throughout the county to be a thriving condition, there being an increase of nearly 100 members in the last year. After the general routine of business the following officers were elected and installed: Worshipful county master, Moses Steeves; Worshipful deputy county master, C. E. Govane; Worshipful county chaplain, Geo. W. Milton; County recording secretary, Beecher Steeves; County financial secretary, Samuel West; County treasurer, David Steeves; Director of ceremonies, Whitfield Milton; Lecturer, George E. Beaumont; 1st deputy lecturer, William McCusby; 2nd deputy lecturer, Joseph Milton.

The Albert Tennis Club are rehearsing a play to be given in Oulton Hall during the Christmas holidays. A circulating library of several hundred good books has been opened in the shop formerly occupied by W. J. Baldwin. The librarian is Miss M. Lean.

Mr. T. B. Hamilton is very low at home at Hopewell Hill, with the hope of recovery. Dr. S. C. Murray is in daily attendance.

C. Berrie, wife and child, of Hillsborough, made an auto trip over the snow covered roads to Riverside today.

What would you do if I should kiss you, asked the young man. Do? said the girl. I'd scream for help. Oh, don't bother, said he, I can do it without any help.

MUSIC TAUGHT FREE

Home Instruction. Special Offer to Readers of The Standard.

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in every locality the International Institute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either Piano, Organ, Violin, Mandolin, Guitar, Cornet, Banjo, Cello or Sight Singing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.

You may not know one note from another; yet by their wonderfully simple and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special instruction.

The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make every thing plain. Under the Institute's tender offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amount (averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and the necessary sheet music.

No one should overlook this wonderful offer. Tell your friends about it—show this notice to them.

The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything clear.

Write today for the Free booklet, which explains everything. It will convince you and cost you nothing. Address: No. 100 West 42nd Street, International Institute of Music, 88 Fifth Ave., Dept. 404B, New York, N. Y.
