CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups. It is sold in every drug store, and is counterfeited sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Bond's restaurant was the scene of a very enjoyable gathering last evening when the employees of Waterbury & Rising were entertained by the firm to a very delightful supper. It was the annual gathering of those in the employ of the company, and the occasion last evening was one which will long remain fixed in the minds of all present.

First thorough and systematic survey to ascertain the facts.

Second. The enactment of a housing code and effective building regulations, with authority for enforcement.

Third. Adequate appropriation for inspection and enforcement of the law.

Fourth. The formation of co-partnership or other form of building company to engage in the building of suitable workmen's homes.

Fifth. The securing of a net return on capital not exceeding six per cent.

At intervals during the lecture a large number of interesting slides were thrown on the screen, illustrating existing bad housing conditions in our own and other cities, and views of the various residential districts, and some of our own Dominion.

At the close of the lecture, Mr. G. P. Matthews tendered Mr. Burditt a hearty vote of thanks on behalf of those present.

MINISTER OF MILITIA'S STATEMENT OF CASE

Do we understand that the Minister of Militia can throw taunts against a member of this House, and that a gentleman on this side does not constitute a question of privilege, demand Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attention?

Does the Minister of Militia, he added, "persist in the statements he has made, or will he take the manly course, and say he was at fault?"

The Liberal side, Colonel Hughes was heard to shout, "No" and the Conservatives in turn pounded their desks.

The Minister of Militia arose, stepped into the aisle, and got a rousing cheer from the ministerial benches.

"I am glad," he began in characteristically laconic fashion, "that the leader of the opposition is showing a return of vitality."

"You are a dead man yourself," shouted one of the French members from Quebec.

"I do not belong to the craven crowd," shot back Col. Hughes, "and will go a little further now. I will tell the House that it is current property throughout the breadth and length of this land that the bog at Farnham was unloaded on the people as a military camp and that this was engineered by Sydney Fisher. That is what I said before, and it is what I say today. I say further that a former member of this house by the name of Meggs had mortgages on the property which could not be redeemed in any other way, and it was understood by the man and Mr. Fisher. Does the honorable the Ex-Prime Minister know it?"

"Personally I do not know anything about this matter. I do not know whether it is true or false but I challenge my honorable friend to state outside the house the charges he has made," remarked Sir Wilfrid.

"I do not require any lessons in gallantry or courage from the honorable Ex-Prime Minister," said Sir Wilfrid. "I am not going to be intimidated by the Opposition were confounded. They expected Col. Hughes to crawl. They did not expect that he had something to say in defence. So they fell back in their chairs without a chirp and the house proceeded with its business."

MRS. T. H. BULLOCK TO REPRESENT ST. JOHN

National Council of Women to Send Eight other Delegates—Executive Made Selection.

Mrs. T. H. Bullock, president of the Saint John Branch of the Local Council of Women, has been notified that Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen will represent the Saint John Branch at the order of the national meeting of the National Council now being held in Ottawa. The principal business before this executive is the arrangement for the forthcoming meeting to be held in Rome in May and the plans for a celebration of the "majority year" of the National Council. This takes place next year, the general feeling is that this twenty-first birthday should be fittingly observed. It is of interest to learn that Mrs. Bullock has been chosen as one of the nine delegates to represent Canada at Rome. Thirty-five names were submitted and it is somewhat an honor to her city that Mrs. Bullock should be among the fortunate ones who were selected. These do not represent presidents of councils only, but members as well as officials.

TELLS NEED OF IMPROVEMENT

W. F. Burditt in Interesting Address on "Our Housing Problem—Last of Free Course."

W. F. Burditt, president of the National History Society, gave an illustrated lecture on "Our Housing Problem" in the museum yesterday afternoon. This, the final lecture of the free course in connection with the Ladies' Association, was a fitting close to a highly instructive, as well as interesting series on different phases of the social question.

"The housing problem," Mr. Burditt said, "is not a mere matter of scarcity of houses and increasing rents, nor is it solely a question of providing houses for the industrial workers for whom we hope to find employment in ever-increasing numbers, important as is that phase of the subject; but it is mainly and primarily a question of whether a large part of our population should have a chance to live in health and decency, or even have a chance to live at all."

In many cities the existing bad housing conditions are not realized until there is a systematic inspection, when to the amazement of the authorities, it is learned that behind their beautiful boulevards, the worst of slum conditions prevail.

As an example, Mr. Burditt took Brooklyn and told how through such an investigation there were discovered one hundred and seventy thousand dark interior rooms, without light or air or any means of ventilation, where people lived and slept; the result was within three years every dark room in Brooklyn was eliminated.

The effect of unsanitary dwellings upon the victim may better be imagined than described, but we do know that character is influenced to a great extent by environment, and it has been amply demonstrated that when conditions surrounding a slum population have been improved the people themselves improved morally as well as physically.

The physical effect of bad housing is conclusively shown by the fact that the death rate per thousand is six times as great in two-roomed tenements as it is in four rooms or more. Also it has been discovered that boys reared in five-roomed tenements are twelve pounds heavier and nearly five inches taller than those in one-roomed tenements, while the girls show even greater differences.

First thorough and systematic survey to ascertain the facts.

Second. The enactment of a housing code and effective building regulations, with authority for enforcement.

Third. Adequate appropriation for inspection and enforcement of the law.

Fourth. The formation of co-partnership or other form of building company to engage in the building of suitable workmen's homes.

Fifth. The securing of a net return on capital not exceeding six per cent.

ment of agriculture influenced in purchasing the site which they have purchased and which I think is a very good site in the city of Fredericton. I felt that the purchase of a farm ought to be left to the choice of the department of agriculture. The department of agriculture, in purchasing that farm in the city of Fredericton for the purpose of an experimental farm was not influenced by the fact that it was in the city of Fredericton, nor within the city limits, and within about three miles of the post office or the parliamentary buildings.

Fredericton is a very extensive city in point of area and this farm is within the city and not far down as the Sunbury County line. It is situated on the banks of the St. John River. The C. P. R. runs alongside it in the rear and the St. John Valley Railway also traverses it. By motor or steam it is only a very short drive from the parliamentary buildings. As my honorable friend, Mr. Burditt, has said, it is only a very short drive from the parliamentary buildings. There is a further advantage in having that farm situated in the city of Fredericton, which is the capital of the province to which the members of the legislature come every year and to which many other people come in connection with parliamentary and departmental business.

DIVORCE GRANTED IN LUNNEY VS. LUNNEY

Separation Granted without Alimony—Court Adjourning to Meet Here Tomorrow Afternoon.

Fredericton, Feb. 26.—The session of the divorce court was resumed this morning at 11 o'clock. Judge McKeown delivered judgment in the case of Marion M. Lunney vs. George W. Lunney. This case, which was tried on Tuesday, comes from Queens county. The court, after reciting the facts brought forth in the evidence, said there was but one conclusion to come to and that was the husband had been guilty of infidelity. The divorce was ordered to be entered up, without alimony.

The case of Albert Demery vs. Katie Demery was taken up and heard, J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., appearing for plaintiff. No defence was offered. Two witnesses were examined, the plaintiff and Mrs. Ewart. Their evidence went to show how unfaithful was the defendant, the former proving the marriage, and the latter's testimony going to show that Mrs. Demery had been living with one Louis Ewart, as man and wife for some time past, and that two children were born to them. Court considered.

The court then adjourned until Saturday afternoon next to meet at 10 o'clock in St. John, when Mr. Waring will be tried. Francis Kerr appears for plaintiff and Messrs. MacRae, Sinclair and MacRae for defendant.

DEMES LOSS ON THE I. C. R.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—The usual quota of questions were answered by ministers of the House this afternoon.

Mr. J. H. Sinclair inquired what departments of the government instructed Mr. H. P. Duchemin, commissioner to refuse employees, whose conduct was being investigated, to employ counsel. The secretary of state replied on behalf of all the departments, that the I. C. R. division, and every instance except the department of railways, the answer was that no such instructions had been issued. The answer from the railways department contained a letter instructing Mr. Duchemin not to allow counsel to appear.

In regard to three trips of Hon. P. Brodeur to the old country, Hon. J. D. Hazen replied that in 1907 Mr. Brodeur's expenses were $8,215; in 1909, $6,705; in 1911, $6,412. Except in 1907 the minister was accompanied only by officials, his secretary, and in 1907 by a messenger. In 1907 Mrs. Brodeur and two lady guests were in the party. Their transportation expenses, amounting to $307.50 were paid by the department in April, 1907; but were refunded by the minister in January, 1908.

The minister of railways told Hon. H. R. Emmerson that Mr. Gutelius had not stated that the I. C. R. division was losing $25,000 a year, and that the statement was not true.

Hon. L. P. Pelletier told Mr. Roche Lanctot, that Postmaster General Samuel, of Great Britain was the guest of the government of Canada during 1913, and that he was accompanied on his trip by the Canadian
