A LITTLE LEADS TO

MUCH

Some days ago it was reported that His Worship Mayor Hayes had received from a lady in the country, who modestly concealed her identity under the initials R. G. W., several pieces of fancy work. These were to be sold for the benefit of the soldiers "who are doing so much for us" she wrote. In her letter she also stated that it was hard to raise money in the country and hard to sell articles, but she wanted to do something for the boys oversees hard to sell articles, but she wanted to do something for the boys overseas.

Mayor Hayes handed the articles, which were very nicely embroidered, to Mrs. E. Atherton Smith and they were disposed of at the Royal Standard Chapter camouflage tea on Saturday, realizing a sum of $8. The money will be used to purchase yarn for socks to be sent to the soldiers and the chapter are very grateful for the privilege of selling the holders.

Among those purchasing the holders were General Macdonnell, Mayor Hayes, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, Mrs. John E. Moore, Mr. Willard Smith, Mr. Henderson and others.

Among other speakers were Mrs. Muldrew, director of domestic economy at Ottawa, who spoke of food conservation, and Mrs. Nellie McClung, who addressed the meeting on the mobilization of women—the last line of defence. Speeches were made by Mayor Evans of Edmonton, His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Brett. Premier Stewart, Hon. Duncan Marshall and Hon. Chas. A. Dunning of the Saskatchewan government. Resolutions regarding medical inspection in all rural schools, the reporting of venereal diseases, free scholarships in agricultural colleges, prohibition, greater production of toodstuffs, infant mortality, equal rights of parents, and on many other subjects, were passed.

Miss Winter was a guest at a luncheon given by the Women's Canadian Club of Edmonton, at which Dr. Helen MacMurchy spoke on the prisoners of war, and was also entertained at a teagiven at the McDonald in honor of Mrs. McClung. Miss Winter will visit in Calgary, the guest of Mrs. C. B. Thompson, before returning to Fredericton.
