Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! Obituary
Mrs. Jane E. Dunn.
On October 11th, at the residence of her son, George Herbert Piers, Kingston, Kings Co., N. B., the death took place of Mrs. Jane E. Dunn, after a lingering illness, borne with patience and Christian fortitude. Though she lived to the advanced age of 86 years, she was in the possession of her faculties to the end. The deceased was born in Fredericton, being the daughter of the late George and Mary Treadwell Barker. After the death of her parents, she came to Kingston to live with her aunt, Mrs. Richard Piers. In the year 1860 she married for her first husband the late George H. Piers, to whom two children were born, the daughter passing away in childhood. After a few years she contracted a second marriage with James Dunn, of Lakeside Farm, Kingston. After his death she came to live with her son, possessing a beautiful soprano voice, she in her early life was a member of Trinity Church choir and a regular attendant. In sickness she was ever ready to give a helping hand. She is survived by one son, G. Herbert Piers, and one sister, Mrs. Dow Vandin, of Fredericton, N. B., besides several nieces, nephews and other relatives. R. S. Barker of Fredericton, N. B., being a cousin. Moon Slightly Off Its Course

London, Oct. 21.—The moon is slightly off its proper path and twelve miles ahead of its schedule, the Astronomer Royal, A. C. Crommelin, of Greenwich observatory, announced today.

A study of this week's eclipse shows the moon to be off its line, probably due to some magnetic unknown force, he said.

If Stomach is Out of Order —"Diapepsin"

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief. This harmless antacid helps digest anything you eat and overcomes a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach in five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your druggist a sixty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no gas or heartburn, no fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, headache or intestinal griping. Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this food fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or indigestion.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

This is an agent for prompt results. Make and save you about 5¢.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several powerful elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose. The cough syrup is a combination of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, mix 2½ ounces of Pine in a 16-oz. bottle and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make 16 ounces—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough as sold in a very short business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pine and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 15 hours or less. Splendid too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pine's "Syrup," and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Toronto, Ont.

The Vital Issue

"What we have to decide is this—Are we going to continue the protective system of this country or are we not? That is the question and that is the whole question. And the great, big, necessary thing is that every voter in this country from the Yukon to Halifax knows that this is the question he or she is deciding when he or she votes in this great contest."

ARTHUR MEIGHEN.

THE vital issue in the coming election—is the Tariff, and to every clear thinking Canadian it should be readily apparent that a Protective Fiscal Policy is absolutely essential to stability, progress and development.

Every important country in the world upholds Protection as an essential economic principle. Even Great Britain—so long the stronghold of Free Trade—has now adopted laws that constitute Protection of the most effective kind. In fact, the present policy among most nations is towards raising their tariff walls, not lowering them. In the face of these facts it would be suicidal for Canada to do exactly the reverse and discard the fiscal system which has been responsible for its progress during the past forty-three years.

Free Trade would mean death to Canadian industry. It would also result in the immediate closing down of Canadian plants of foreign firms, with consequent additional unemployment. There are today 650 American factories alone in Canada. Similar proposed ventures would be abandoned. New capital

Meighen stands four square for Reasonable Protection for all the people—and asks for an overwhelming mandate to give both industry and agriculture that assurance which will spell prosperity for all. Individual prosperity depends upon National prosperity. Your personal interests and Canada's very existence hang upon your vote.
