

Cuts, Bruises, Stiff Joints, Swellings, Sore Throat, Colds, Bowel Troubles—both outward and inward ailments are cured by JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

REPLIES INDICATE THAT IMMIGRATION CONFERENCE WILL BE GREAT SUCCESS

"Let Us Hope That New Brunswick Will Now Come Into Her Own," Writes One Man—Several Messages of Hope and Good Cheer—Some of the Important Subjects to Be Discussed.

Thursday, Feb. 8. Replies are beginning to come in to the first notices sent out of the provincial immigration conference to be held at Fredericton on Friday, March 8, and without exception those received are acceptances, couched in the most enthusiastic terms.

POINTS TO ST. JOHN AS PLACE FOR SUBSTANTIAL INVESTMENT

Several local men who are interested in the establishment of a new theatre here are said to have made overtures to J. A. Lynch for the purchase of his building at the corner of Union and Coburg streets, but as the present tenants have long tenancies they were not able to come to an agreement...

WELL PLEASED WITH THE SITE Dr. Townsend Thinks Strait Shore Location Good One for Hospital—Conference With Premier.

With Mayor Frink, County Secretary Kelly, Dr. A. F. McAvenny and Dr. David Townsend, superintendent of the Jordan Sanitarium, paid a visit yesterday afternoon to the site on the Strait Shore which has been selected for the tuberculosis hospital and day camp.

"OUR PERSONAL ADVICE TO ALL SKIN SUFFERERS" Clinton Brown, Druggist. We have been in business in this town for some time, and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary A. Carter. Under the heading of a sterling character...

Col. A. N. Worthington. Sberbrooke, Que., Feb. 7.—Colonel A. N. Worthington, ex-M.P., died early this morning after a year's illness.

Mrs. French. Friday, Feb. 9. The death of Mrs. Mary Ann French, widow of John French, of the I. C. R., occurred Wednesday night at her home, 22 Winter street.

Pilot Henry Spears. Friday, Feb. 9. Henry Spears, one of the best known pilots at this port, died at his home, 108 "Red" lane, last evening.

Charles Ward. At his home in Ormstono Wednesday morning, Charles Ward, one of the oldest inhabitants, died after a lengthy illness at the advanced age of eighty-one years.

Thomas Richardson. Thomas Richardson, of St. Andrews, died on Tuesday morning. The deceased was a native of Grimaby (Eng.), and for the greater part of his life was engaged on railroad work in connection with the railway.

Mrs. Sarah J. McLean. The death of Mrs. Sarah J. McLean, widow of the late William McLean, occurred at the home of her son, C. E. McLean, Barton, Queens county, Jan. 27.

Mrs. John Cairns. Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Following an illness of a little over three weeks from which she passed away on Thursday at the home of her sister here at No. 290 Clinton Place, Mrs. Cairns, nee Cairns, was John Cairns, of this city, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Worden, of No. 143 Guilford street, Carleton, St. John, a sister of Isaac and Allen Worden—Isaac residing at No. 73 Highland street, and Allen at the Guilford street address there, and who in that city is related to various Worden families, was yesterday afternoon interred in the Evergreen cemetery in the presence of many of the relatives and friends of the family in and around this city.

Capt. George W. Wells. The Seattle Post Intelligencer has a dispatch from Tacoma, dated January 30, saying that Captain George W. Wells, of Venebunkport (Me.), a veteran mariner of the Atlantic, is paralysed.

Rev. John M. McLeod. A. M. McLellan, of Moncton, received telegram from Mrs. C. D. Thompson, who is spending the winter in Vancouver, telling of the death of Rev. John M. McLeod, which occurred on Saturday. He was at one time pastor of the Presbyterian church in Charlottetown (P. E. I.).

James Howie. James Howie passed away on Sunday at his residence in Cottage road, Sydney. Mr. Howie was sixty-four years of age. He is survived by Mrs. Howie, who is a sister of Messrs. F. and J. Morley. Donald Howie, of Sydney, is a brother. Rev. Isaac Howie, of Shediac (N. B.), and Rev. John Howie, of Dartmouth, also are brothers, and Mrs. Kenneth McKinnon, of North Esplanade, Sydney, is a sister.

Ernest A. Boone. Frederickton, Feb. 6.—Friends of Ernest A. Boone, the well known St. Mary's baseball player, were shocked today to learn of his sudden death, which took place at his home at St. Mary's late last night. After playing for several years with local teams at St. Mary's, "Ernie" Boone, as he was known to all the fans, first branched out into semi-professional baseball as a member of the Young Tarsars of Frederickton, the second organization of that name to exist in this city. Later he played in other cities, including Gloucester, going to Cape Breton with a number of other players at the time of the baseball boom there. His record as a pitcher was a creditable one and he was also a good outfielder and batter. He was a son of Mr. Ernest Boone, of St. Mary's, and was aged 23 years. Three years ago he was married, his wife being Miss Tardiff, of Presque Isle (Me.), by whom he is survived. Besides his parents, two sisters, Charles Thomas and Mrs. W. Dixon, of St. John, also survive.

Robert Chisholm. Robert Chisholm, who died in Wolfville, N. S., on Sunday, was 107 years old. He was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, in March, 1805. In 1816 the family emigrated to St. John, where they remained for several years. Here Robert learned his father's trade. At the age of thirty he removed to County Tyrone, Ireland, and later he went to Cornwallis. With the exception of three years in St. John, Mr. Chisholm had lived in Cornwallis, and finally in Wolfville, N. S., for the last forty or fifty years. Until a few months ago, he enjoyed excellent physical health. He had smoked since he was 13 years of age, having started it under medical advice, for asthma.

Signal Loyalists. Most of the clothing worn in the rural districts was of "homespun." He had paid as low as $7 for a fat hog, and as high as $14 for a barrel of flour.

Col. A. N. Worthington. Sberbrooke, Que., Feb. 7.—Colonel A. N. Worthington, ex-M.P., died early this morning after a year's illness.

Mrs. French. Friday, Feb. 9. The death of Mrs. Mary Ann French, widow of John French, of the I. C. R., occurred Wednesday night at her home, 22 Winter street.

Pilot Henry Spears. Friday, Feb. 9. Henry Spears, one of the best known pilots at this port, died at his home, 108 "Red" lane, last evening.

Charles Ward. At his home in Ormstono Wednesday morning, Charles Ward, one of the oldest inhabitants, died after a lengthy illness at the advanced age of eighty-one years.

Thomas Richardson. Thomas Richardson, of St. Andrews, died on Tuesday morning. The deceased was a native of Grimaby (Eng.), and for the greater part of his life was engaged on railroad work in connection with the railway.

Mrs. Sarah J. McLean. The death of Mrs. Sarah J. McLean, widow of the late William McLean, occurred at the home of her son, C. E. McLean, Barton, Queens county, Jan. 27.

Mrs. John Cairns. Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Following an illness of a little over three weeks from which she passed away on Thursday at the home of her sister here at No. 290 Clinton Place, Mrs. Cairns, nee Cairns, was John Cairns, of this city, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Worden, of No. 143 Guilford street, Carleton, St. John, a sister of Isaac and Allen Worden—Isaac residing at No. 73 Highland street, and Allen at the Guilford street address there, and who in that city is related to various Worden families, was yesterday afternoon interred in the Evergreen cemetery in the presence of many of the relatives and friends of the family in and around this city.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. L. R. ROSS Thursday, Feb. 8. Many friends heard yesterday with sincere regret of the death of Mrs. L. R. Ross, who had been ill for some time, and died at her home, 108 "Red" lane, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Ross was 70 years of age and had been in the hospital for some weeks. She was a devoted mother and wife, and was well known to all who knew her. She was born in Scotland and came to Canada in her youth. She was married to Mr. Ross in 1840. They had three children, two of whom are still living. Mrs. Ross was a member of the Presbyterian church. Her death was a sudden one, and she was found lying on the floor of her room. The cause of her death is not yet known. Her remains will be interred in the Evergreen cemetery on Monday next.

ASK MORE MONEY TO PROTECT FORESTS (Continued from page 1.) Information regarding the different varieties and qualities of our Canadian woods. The association was to be congratulated on having the patronage of the present representative of his majesty. From the beginning the association had been thus honored, Lord Minto was always ready to give his assistance, and Earl Grey was not only an active but an enthusiastic forester. In a letter written to him (Mr. Stewart), Earl Grey on his way home to England at the close of his term rejoined that during his stay in Canada there had been created a sound public sentiment on forestry.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

TARIFF BOARD BILL. PASSES COMMONS (Continued from page 1.) well enough alone to be called upon to deliver the goods to the interests on such short notice. Accordingly a commission was appointed to lay the wires through which the power will be turned on later.

NORTON NOTES Norton, N. B., Feb. 7.—The funeral of Mrs. D. O. Laughey took place Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Father Byrne in the Sacred Heart church, interment in the Sacred Heart cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful.

LOCAL NEWS Correspondents who send letters to the Semi-Weekly Telegraph and who wish to have them returned if they are not printed, must send stamps for return postage. The tuberculosis dispensary nurse reports an attendance of 63 during the month of January and seven new cases, making a total of 79 on record. She made 129 visits to homes. The association is indebted to Mrs. S. C. Hall for clothing, to the women's council for $25 to provide milk and eggs for the patients, and to the LaTour Chapter of the Daughter of the Empire for $5.20.

A money saving Proposition Write for a copy of our Spring & Summer Catalogue 1912

W. A. Scroggie Ltd Montreal The Home of True Economy

J. 815—Women's charming waist, of finest quality sheer white Persian lawn. Front finished with hand-embroidered panel, in a very pretty floral design. Rows of French Valenciennes lace insertion and tucking; tucked collar; sleeves 3/4 length, edged with lace. Positively phenomenal value. Sizes 32 to 44. Price, all charges paid, $1.98

WEEK'S DINNER MENUS FOR YOUNG HOUSEKEEPERS A week's dinner menus for the benefit of the young housekeeper is given in the Woman's World, which says the Sunday dinner meal would do for a company dinner. Sunday dinner—Tomato soup, relish, small chicken roasted in paper bag, baked potatoes, baked squash, pumpkin pie, apple pie, lemon curd.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hathcock.

TARIFF BOARD BILL. PASSES COMMONS (Continued from page 1.) Mr. Meighen (Portage Le Prairie) charged the opposition with being composed of two schools of thought, the moderate tariff man and the free trader. Their dual position, he said, was accordingly "full of anomalies and absurdities." He maintained that the government had a mandate from the people at the last election to create a tariff board. He favored a "policy of reasonable protection" of everything, including agricultural implements.

NORTON NOTES Norton, N. B., Feb. 7.—The funeral of Mrs. D. O. Laughey took place Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Father Byrne in the Sacred Heart church, interment in the Sacred Heart cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful. The funeral of Mrs. Ernest Myers took place Monday afternoon from her late home in Bloomfield. Rev. Mr. Hainington conducted the services, interment in the Church of England cemetery. There were many floral offerings.

VOL. 11. SIR E. SUC Haldane C. News to London Gra Current Rep King George C Knight of Foreign Sec Minister Bac and Cabine Held Immed

London, Feb. 13—This morning suggests about to resign the he will be succeeded. Further suggestion danc's mission to B that although Sir Ed credited with an ac accession to the pr interfere with Great an entente with Gre As evidence confir Graphic points out futh's private secret has recently been p position under the g no successor has been it difficult, adds the conclusion that Mr. Aquires a secretary.

Aviator Rose f New York Ha Great Dem ing Pictures Flight.

New York, Feb. 12—Aviator, who was the demonstrate the safe acroplane here, made from and over the h accompanied by Adri a moving picture in tained the first mo from an aeroplane. Wrapped tightly i Duff started in nea the water near the Statute of Liber flight was made acc the funnels of incou around the shores a flying back over the height of over 1,000 was a flight over the Governor's Island.

TAFT NEGOTI RECIPROCI WITH Washington, Feb. 10—Secretary of State lber of conferences w Cuban minister, as a convention, especially the duties on sugar declined today to d this regard, but it i expects the present tation of a new tre secured, and it is u understanding has be the United States an dition by congress a dent.