The Parlor Concert Recital by Miss Shireff and her pupils will take place in the large parlors of Mrs. Hugh McKenzie, "Bleak House," on Thursday evening, 21st inst. Miss White, the violinist, so popular in Halifax and St. John, will certainly be a very great attraction.

Our advertisers especially those who take pains in having their advertisements look as neat as possible will pardon any "pie" that may appear today, as even the best set and most securely "locked up" ad. will not long withstand the pressure of a stream of water of 90lbs to the square inch.

Practical. "I despise a practical joker," said the woman in a pink bonnet.

"That is the only kind of joking that pays," responded the woman in a sailor hat.

She was the wife of a professional humorist and was therefore qualified to speak with authority on the subject.

Righteous indignation. "Did you kiss him?" demanded the mother.

"Certainly not," indignantly answered the girl. "Do you think I'd be so forward?" And a few minutes later she gave a deep sigh of relief and muttered softly to herself, "Thank heaven she didn't ask if he kissed me!"

Not His Fault. "Mr. Rashleigh at home?"

"No, sir; he's just gone away for three months."

"Why, how's that? He told me he was not going away until next week."

"Yes, sir; but you see he didn't know that his trial was coming off yesterday."

Also a Few Men. When a dealer wants to attract attention to his window display, he ought to hire a woman to stand outside and look in. Every woman within five blocks would hasten to the scene and follow her example.

In Detroit Music Circles. Daughter—Papa, what did Liszt compose?

Father (grumbling)—I don't know unless it was "Listen to the Mocking Bird."

The name kinder sounds like it might be his.

He Was Resigned. "I suppose," said Miss Snapp's fiancé, "you'll be sorry when I marry your sister and take her away to live with me."

"No," replied her little brother. "I never did like you much, anyhow."

CARROLL'S CORNER, HALIFAX CO.

Dec. 12.—Not having any cases of mumps, measles or scarlet fever to report, and none of the inhabitants of this peaceful little village having distinguished himself by "drowning," still we presume to send the following for 'News' readers:

Mr. and Mrs. James Keyes gave a party in their new home as a farewell to their daughter, Cora, who leaves on Thursday to spend the winter with relatives in Amesbury, Mass.

Quite a party of friends left one week this fall for the neighboring Republic, among whom were Mrs. William and Miss Jane Keyes, for their homes in Wyoming and Colorado respectively; Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Henry and daughter, to their home in New York; Misses Ayl, Miss Etta McDonald, Miss Annie Annand and Mr. and Mrs. G. N. G. McKeen on visits to their friends in that Nova Scotia "Mecca"—Boston.

Mr. Alex. Woodworth expects to soon leave for Attleboro, Mass., to accompany his mother home—so the fair sex of that city, of whom we hear frequently through the 'News,' "Please take notice."

Amongst the recent additions to our "lumber kings," is Mr. Frank Parker, of Shubenacadie, who has "pitched his tent" in Mr. Robert Logan's woods, and has a number of men employed.

Mr. Arthur Annand has leased his saw mill to Mr. James Kerr, and is now operating his steam saw mill.

Mr. Alex. Woodworth has moved his saw mill into the Antrim woods.

The Cooks are doing a rushing business with their grist and wool carding mills. We recently saw there a three horse load with 100 bushels of grain to be smashed, and people come from Hants, Halifax and Colchester counties to have their grain ground in the most approved manner.

Mrs. Walker has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Keyes, at the "Corner," and we understand that Mr. G. McKeen has been authorized to sell the farm just vacated, at a great sacrifice, although there is a splendid large house and good barn around it, at one half the cost of the house.

Some of our farmers are trying to get a tri-weekly mail. This is a step in the right direction, as under the present system, people living in New Hampshire get their 'Truro News' before we do.

Halifax County is enjoying its monthly (?) election. This is a great boon to large families, with a cold winter and empty flour barrel facing them. WIDE AWAKE.

On Their Bridal Tour. She—How much do you love me, darling?

He—A good deal, dear. Our expenses are $10 a day at this hotel.—Detroit Free Press.

He will if he's here to stay!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

1900 has been a record breaking year for us. Our sales every month have been away ahead of any previous year, and December bids fair to surpass them all. All we are afraid of is that our stock may run out; so we would ask our friends to call as soon as possible, and we will keep their purchases and deliver them on Christmas Eve, or whenever desired. There were most magnificent ceremonies in connection with the centennial celebration of the founding of the city of Washington, on the 12th inst. President McKinley and all the Cabinet took part in the grand pageantry. How the Truro visitor there, must have enjoyed this grand Celebration.

As Men Come and Go. No government will ever get rich by putting an inheritance tax on wisdom.

The modest man never boasts of his modesty.

There are two kinds of successful men—those who can do things right without being directed by others and those who can do things right when they are told how.

He is a wise man who would know his own picture if it were drawn true to life. People seldom forget the names or faces of others who can help them.

The Pole Is Too Isolated. "Say," began the man who is always suggesting things, "why don't you write a joke about a man who asks another man about where would be a good place to buy ice, and the other man says, 'At the north pole?' Great, isn't it?"

"I am afraid that would be too far-fetched," replied the natural born humorist as he turned sadly to the construction of a bonnet about the poster eating goat.

How He Recognized Her. "Say, old man, I saw your wife down town."

"Did you? Why, when did you ever meet her?"

"Never met her until this morning."

"Then how in the world did you know her?"

"I recognized your necktie."

Thanks. A western paper prints the following "singular card of thanks:

"Mr. and Mrs. Hayes hereby wish to express their thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted at the burning of their house last Monday evening."
