NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Having disposed of my premises, No. 73 King St., East, I have removed to No. 103 Frederick St. opposite the Courtyard where you will find a full line and well assorted stock of Trunks, Bags, Mitts and Gloves, Blankets, Rugs, Harness and Goods for the Horse in general.

When a person buys a harness, it has to do more than to be looked at, therefore we manufacture all our Harness, and save you the factory profits, with the most up to date tools and machinery, with the best of leather, therefore we buy only No. 1 stock which is the cheapest in the long run.

It is claimed by those who pretend to know that leather is still going higher in price, and will be a long time before it gets cheaper. So it will be to the buyers' advantage to get their supplies before spring.

We have a well assorted line of Horse Blankets, large heavy lined Jutes, bought about 25 per cent. below market price; buyers will get the advantage.

Thanking the public for their patronage in the past and soliciting your continued business.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMODEE GARCEAU

32 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1918, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

AMEDEE GARCEAU.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO YOUR HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

"Boy, just watch my horse!" said the Squire to a countryurchin as he went into the village store. "Yesir!" replied the lad, touching his cap. Two minutes more a motorcar came along. The horse reared, snorted and then bolted up the road. As the unhappy lad was starting to pursue the runaway new nearly out of sight, the Squire came out of the store. "I'm glad you've come sir!" said the boy much relieved. "I couldn't have watched him march longer!"

Worse and Worse.

"Philosophers both ancient and modern, harp against marriage. The speaker was President Selma of Cornell. He went on: "It was Plato, I think who said to a young lover who had asked his advice about the girl he loved: "Whether you marry her or not, young man, you will regret it." "Worse than that, though, was the answer of the Persian philosopher when he was asked at what age a man should marry." "Young men, not yet," he said. "Middle-aged men, not now. Old men not at all."

A little capital

IF ONLY I had a little capital, look where I might have been to-day!"

Are you going to be one of the men who say that after you have passed middle age, or are you going to be one of those who "got there" because you had that "little capital" when your chance came?

Most big business concerns and large fortunes had small beginnings.

The men who accomplish things are not the idle rich but the ambitious, industrious men, rich or poor.

A little money saved each week and deposited in the Bank of Toronto can be the beginning of your life venture. With the interest it earns it does not take long to accumulate capital sufficient for a start. The more you have for your beginning, the surer is your success.

We invite your banking account.
