

spirituous liquors therein, shall place upon his house, in an exposed situation, a notice in legible characters, shewing that such person is so licenced as a Tavern Keeper; and every person who shall refuse or neglect so to do, shall incur the penalty imposed for similar offences by the Act passed in the sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth hereinbefore cited, that is to say, of not less than twenty shillings, nor more than forty shillings currency, and shall be liable for a second offence to the forfeiture of his licence, which he may in such case be condemned to forfeit on conviction of such offence, before any two Justices of the Peace.

XII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that whenever any person, holding a licence to keep a house of public entertainment, and to retail spirituous liquors, shall be convicted of having kept a disorderly house, or convicted before two Justices of the Peace, of knowingly vending spirituous liquors during divine service, on Sundays or Holidays, except for the use of travellers, not being persons usually resident in that, or any adjoining Parish, Township or extra Parochial place, or of suffering any seaman, soldier, apprentice, servant or minor, to remain tippling in his, or her house after seven o'clock in the evening in winter, or after nine o'clock in the evening in summer, or of having committed any felony; the Court, or such Justices of the Court of King's Bench, or the Provincial Judge, or the Justices of the Peace, before whom such person shall have been convicted, shall, if he or they shall see fit, adjudge and order that the licence thus held by any such person so convicted, shall be forfeited, and that he or she shall no longer keep a house of public entertainment, or retail spirituous liquors in virtue thereof, and that he or she shall be incapable of having or holding any licence for such purpose thereafter.

XIII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all and every the provisions contained in this Ordinance, shall extend to and have force and effect in all and every Township and Seignior, and all and every extra Parochial part or parts of Townships and Seigniories in this Province.

XIV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that any person or persons (except any persons who may have obtained licences, to keep houses or other places of public entertainment,) who shall sell or retail ale, or other malt liquors, or cider, or spruce beer, ginger beer or other fermented liquors, to be drank in their house, out-house, yard, garden, orchard or other place, shall be considered and deemed to be liable to the penalty or penalties, which are by law imposed on persons keeping houses or other places of public entertainment without a licence; and such penalty or penalties may be sued for and recovered, and shall be distributed, applied and accounted for, in the manner and form provided by law with regard to penalties imposed on persons selling spirituous liquors without a licence, as in, and by the said Act passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's Reign, it was provided and enacted.

XV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no person shall, in the Country Parishes of this Province, open any house or put any sign for the sale of beer, or any sort of fermented liquor, or cakes, or shall otherwise publicly sell or dispose of any such articles, at any stand or place in any such Parish, without first obtaining a licence signed by the Church Warden in office, or by the nearest Justice of the Peace (which licence must be renewed every year,) and every person obtaining such licence shall exhibit the same, whenever he shall be thereunto required by any Peace Officer or Officer of Militia, and every person who shall in any way offend against the provisions of this section, or any of them, shall for every such offence, and being duly convicted thereof,
