

Beavers Post Double Win

The UNB Beavers spent last weekend on the road and came back with a very rewarding double win. On Friday night at Shearwater the Beavers racked up 125 points to win a three way meet. Mt. A with 111 and Dal. with 77 followed UNB in the standings. The next afternoon at Acadia the Beavers waltzed to a 93-23 win over their hosts. The Shearwater meet opened with a very convincing UNB win in the 400 medley relay. Taylor started and stayed with Gord McMichael, presently the best back stroker in the Maritimes. Pentland swam breaststroke and made up the few yards Taylor had lost.

Price followed and gained a good lead with the butterfly and finally Fillmore added to this lead on the freestyle leg. UNB's time was 3 seconds ahead of their nearest competitor.

Robb and Jackson of Mount A won the next two events. Noel Villard posted a win in the 200 individual medley, beating out Pentland by 2 seconds. Mount A came back with another win in the 100 breast stroke. The score was now Dal. 33, Mount A 45, UNB 41.

Price won the 200 Butterfly for UNB. Taylor and Edwards combined for 9 more points with second and third place finishes. Depth and strength in all events had now put UNB ahead with 66 points.

Price and Pentland finished 1,2 in the 100 Butterfly. Pinckard and Fillmore placed second and third in the 100 freestyle. Taylor and Edwards combined again, this time for a win and a second.

Barry posted a good time of 7:42.8 for 400 meters to win a hard fought race over Bus-saw. Pentland, Pinckard, Fillmore and Barry swam to a win in the 400 free style relay.

The Acadia meet featured poor conditions which prevented any good times. The Beavers and Mermaids showed that they are the top collegiate swimmers in the Maritimes. They should prove so again when the Beavers host Dalhousie January 29, at the LBR pool.

Mermaids Top Mt. A, Dal

Full of spirit and determination, the UNB Mermaids journeyed to Halifax last weekend to meet the Mt. A. Goldfish and the Dalhousie Tigerettes in a three way swim meet. The Mermaids scored 147 points to come out on top. The Goldfish were second with 119.5, and Dal. scored 43.5.

The meet, held in Shearwater's 25 metre pool, served as a good indicator to coaches expect in the annual inter-and swimmers as to what to collegiate championships. The championships come up February at Mt. A.

Coach Whitwill was pleased with the performances of all her charges. Despite some injuries and sickness the Goldfish came up with some near record times in the meet.

YEARBOOK MEETS SCHEDULE

Yearbook editors Barry Cooper and John Short have announced that the first deadline for the yearbook has been successfully met. A number of pages of copy have been sent to the printer. Many students will recall that the reason for the lateness of the '965 yearbook was that the staff missed many deadlines. The editors of the '966 Up The Hill are sure that they have their edition well under control.
