FROM JAMES MACDONALD, HALIFAX.

November 22, 1909.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of the 18th. inst. in reference to working of the Act commonly known in Canada as the "Lemieux Act" and in reply to your request to furnish you with the conclusions on its working I may say that my experience is quite limited and I prefer referring you to those who have been oftener on conciliation Boards, such as Judge A. M. Gilvary, Antigonish, Hon. J. Longley, Supreme Court Judge, Halifax; Charles Archibald, Halifax, George Campbell, Halifax.

Yours truly,

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
