

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
REGINA, SASK.

Sept. 24, 1955.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

This is a belated acknowledgment of yours of September 19th. I gather from it that Eugene is still finding errors in Wade's book and all I can say is, more power to him. I note your two comments and am astounded to learn that Wade says you changed your attitude to protection in the '26 campaign. It is a mystery where he could have gotten such an idea.

Many thanks for the clipping of Mc Aris's column. This will stimulate interest in the Ferns-Ostry book, which is all to the good. I understand publication of the first volume has again been delayed but let us hope it will soon be available.

I am busy trying to formulate some sensible notions about the policies and prospects of the Progressive-Conservative party for that Queen's Quarterly article but haven't yet decided just what line I shall take.

Yours sincerely,

Rogers.
