

Ottawa, September 20, 1916.

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 8th instant, No. T. J. 8380-1-2, in regard to land in the Barren Falls reserve required for military use, and to reply to you that the appointment of a board, as suggested, to investigate the existing conditions and advise upon a course of procedure with a view to solving the difficulty, needs with approval, and I am advising the Inspector and the local Agent accordingly.

Your obedient servant,

F. W. H. H.
 Assistant Deputy Secretary.

The Secretary,

British Council,

Headquarters,

Ottawa.
