Canadian Legion; representations to government

1. The Minister of Justice said that it had been agreed that members of the government would meet a delegation from the Canadian Legion the following Friday at noon.

The following Ministers might be present with him on that occasion:

the Secretary of State,
the Minister of Labour,
the Minister of Public Works,
the Minister of National Defence, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Veterans Affairs.

The resolutions passed by the Canadian Legion convention held in May, or some of them, would no doubt be referred to by the delegation. Certain of these had been under examination by the Minister of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Finance.
